AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to any unearned income of a child in certain circumstances

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 131-a of the social services law is amended by adding a new subparagraph (xiv) to 2 read as follows: 3 (xiv) any unearned income of a child when the parent or non-parent 4 5 caregiver chooses to exclude such child from the public assistance 6 household pursuant to subdivision one of section one hundred 7 thirty-one-c of this article. 8 § 2. The section heading of section 131-c of the social services law, 9 as added by chapter 42 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as 10 follows: 11 Inclusion of parents [and siblings] of a minor in the public assist-12 ance household. § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 131-c of the social services law, as 13 added by chapter 42 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows: 14 15 1. For the purposes of determining eligibility for and the amount of 16 assistance payable, the social services district shall, when a minor is 17 named as an applicant for public assistance, require that his or her parents [and minor brothers and sisters] also apply for assistance and 18 be included in the household for purposes of determining eligibility and 19 20 grant amounts, if such individuals reside in the same dwelling unit as the minor applying for assistance. Any income of or available for such 21 22 parents, [brothers and sisters] which is not disregarded under subdivi-23 sion eight of section one hundred thirty-one-a of this article, shall be 24 considered available to such household. [The provisions of] A parent or 25 non-parent caregiver may choose to exclude any other child or children 26 residing in the same dwelling unit from the public assistance household. 27 Nothing in this [subdivision] chapter shall [not apply to] require indi-28 viduals who are recipients of federal supplemental security income bene-
