IN SENATE

January 10, 2024

Introduced by Sen. BRESLIN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT in relation to directing the department of financial services to conduct a study examining the increasing costs of insurance premiums, the lack of availability of insurance coverage for losses from flooding, and the possibility of supporting a private flood insurance market in the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The department of financial services shall conduct a study 2 to examine any increases in property insurance premiums that may affect 3 affordability of property insurance coverage, any lack of availability
4 of property insurance coverage for losses from flooding in New York
5 state, and the possibility of supporting a private flood insurance 6 market in the state. Such department shall:
- 7 (a) analyze any factors that have increased property insurance costs
8 for such losses from flooding and analyze any factors that have limited 9 insurers from property insurance coverage for losses from flooding;
- 10 (b) identify the potential impact, over the next ten years, of the 11 cost of property insurance and the unavailability of property insurance 12 coverage for losses from flooding and any other topic or issue that is 13 determined to be relevant to the completion of the study by the depart-14 ment; and
- 15 (c) analyze the possibility of supporting a private flood insurance
16 market in the state as a supplement to the existing National Flood 17 Insurance Program.
- 18 § 2. The department of financial services shall prepare a report which 19 shall be submitted to the governor, the temporary president of the 20 senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate 21 and the minority leader of the assembly, within eleven months after the 22 effective date of this act, containing findings and recommendations for 23 potential legislative and regulatory actions to address any increased 24 costs, affordability, or any unavailability of property insurance, and
