AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law, in relation to allowing for no fault separation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 5 and 6 of section 170 of the domestic relations law, subdivision 5 as amended by chapter 835 of the laws of 1970, subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 801 of the laws of 1971, are amended to read as follows:

(5) The husband and wife have lived apart pursuant to a decree or judgment of separation for a period of [~~one or more years~~] six months or more after the granting of such decree or judgment, and satisfactory proof has been submitted by the plaintiff that [~~he or she~~] such plaintiff has substantially performed all the terms and conditions of such decree or judgment.

(6) The husband and wife have lived separate and apart pursuant to a written agreement of separation, subscribed by the parties thereto and acknowledged or proved in the form required to entitle a deed to be recorded, for a period of [~~one or more years~~] six months or more after the execution of such agreement and satisfactory proof has been submitted by the plaintiff that [~~he or she~~] such plaintiff has substantially performed all the terms and conditions of such agreement. Such agreement shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county wherein either party resides. In lieu of filing such agreement, either party to such agreement may file a memorandum of such agreement, which memorandum shall be similarly subscribed and acknowledged or proved as was the agreement of separation and shall contain the following information: (a) the names and addresses of each of the parties, (b) the date of marriage of the parties, (c) the date of the agreement of separation and (d) the

2 of separation.

3 § 2. Section 200 of the domestic relations law is amended by adding a
4 new subdivision 6 to read as follows:

5 6. The relationship between the spouses has broken down irretrievably
6 for a period of at least six months, provided that one party has so
7 stated under oath. No action for separation shall be maintained under 8 this subdivision unless and until the economic issues of the payment or 9 waiver of spousal support, the payment of child support, the payment of 10 counsel and experts' fees and expenses as well as the custody and visi-
11 tation with the infant children of the marriage have been resolved by 12 the parties, or determined by the court and incorporated into the 13 action.

14 § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 15 have become a law and shall apply to matrimonial actions commenced on or 16 after such effective date.
