IN SENATE

March 11, 2024

Introduced by Sen. MANNION -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Disabilities

AN ACT establishing the "blue-ribbon commission on the future of New York state's service delivery system for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities act"; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "blue-ribbon commission on the future of New York state's service delivery system for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities act".

2 § 2. A temporary commission, to be known as the "blue-ribbon commission on the future of New York state's service delivery system for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities", hereinafter referred to as the "commission", is hereby established to conduct a comprehensive study and prepare a report to examine, evaluate and make recommendations for systemic reforms to ensure a sustainable set of supports and services that meets the needs of all individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

3 § 3. 1. The commission shall consist of fifteen members appointed by the governor as follows:

4 (a) one member who is an individual with developmental or intellectual disabilities;

5 (b) one member who is a representative of organized labor that represents a facility operated by the office for people with developmental disabilities;

6 (c) one member who is a representative of a provider agency that is certified by the office for people with developmental disabilities;

7 (d) one member who is a representative of a self-advocacy group that represents individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities;

8 (e) one member who is a not-for-profit housing developer with experience building a supervised living facility or a supportive living facility as such terms are defined in section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law,

27 § 4. Such study shall examine systemic reforms to ensure a sustainable
28 set of supports and services that meets the needs of all individuals
29 with intellectual and developmental disabilities, including but not 30 limited to:

31 1. long-term and short-term solutions to address the workforce crisis,
32 including but not limited to the recruitment and retention of staff;

33 2. positive and effective services outcomes and a person-centered
34 approach in delivering all such services;

35 3. access to supports and services that reduce racial and socio-eco-
36 nomic inequities and disparities;

37 4. technology and infrastructure needs;

38 5. limiting closures of state-operated and provider agency-operated
39 facilities;

40 6. solutions to adverse regulatory and administrative burdens placed
41 on individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities;

42 7. dual-diagnosis needs of individuals with intellectual and develop-
43 mental disabilities, behavioral health needs and other complex issues;

44 8. modernized and innovative housing opportunities;

45 9. career pathways, work trainings, and employment options for indi-
46 viduals with intellectual and developmental disabilities;

47 10. appropriate use of technology, including but not limited to tech-
48 nologies such as artificial intelligence; and

49 11. removing barriers that adversely affect individuals enrolled in
50 the self-direction program.

51 § 5. Not later than one year after the effective date of this act, the 52 commission shall prepare and submit to the governor, the temporary pres-
53 ident of the senate and the speaker of the assembly a report of the 54 study's findings, together with specific recommendations for systemic
55 reforms to ensure a sustainable set of supports and services that meets

1 the needs of all individuals with intellectual and developmental disa-
2 bilities.

3 § 6. The office for people with developmental disabilities shall
4 provide the commission with such facilities, assistance, data and infor-
5 mation as will enable the commission to carry out its study and report;
6 provided, further, that state entities shall, at the request of the 7 chair, provide the commission with such facilities, assistance, data and 8 information as will enable the commission to carry out its study and 9 report.

10 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 11 deemed repealed two years after it shall have become a law.
