Introduced by Sen. MATTERA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the real property actions and proceedings law, in relation to providing for a limited alternative remedy to remove unauthorized persons from residential real property

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and intent. The Legislature finds that 2 the right to exclude others from entering, and the right to direct 3 others to immediately vacate, residential real property are the most 4 important real property rights. The Legislature further finds that 5 existing remedies regarding unauthorized persons who unlawfully remain 6 on residential real property fail to adequately protect the rights of 7 the property owner and fail to adequately discourage theft and vandal-
8 ism. The intent of this act is to quickly restore possession of resi-
9 dential real property to the lawful owner of the property when the prop-
10 erty is being unlawfully occupied and to thereby preserve property
11 rights while limiting the opportunity for criminal activity.

12 § 2. The real property actions and proceedings law is amended by 13 adding a new section 758 to read as follows:

14 § 758. Limited alternative remedy to remove unauthorized persons from 15 residential real property. 1. A property owner or their authorized agent 16 may request from a police officer, as defined in subdivision thirty-four 17 of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, the immediate removal of 18 a person or persons unlawfully occupying a residential dwelling pursuant 19 to this section if all of the following conditions are met:

20 (a) The requesting person is the property owner or authorized agent of 21 the property owner;

22 (b) The real property that is being occupied includes a residential 23 dwelling;

24 (c) An unauthorized person or persons have unlawfully entered and 25 remain or continue to reside on the property owner's property;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD14650-01-4

1 (d) The real property was not open to members of the public at the 2 time the unauthorized person or persons entered;

3 (e) The property owner has directed the unauthorized person to leave
4 the property;

5 (f) The unauthorized person or persons are not current or former 6 tenants pursuant to a written or oral rental agreement authorized by the 7 property owner;

8 (g) The unauthorized person or persons are not immediate family
9 members of the property owner; and

10 (h) There is no pending litigation related to the real property
11 between the property owner and any known unauthorized person.

12 2. To request the immediate removal of an unlawful occupant of a resi-13 dential dwelling, the property owner or their authorized agent shall 14 submit a complaint by presenting a completed complaint to remove persons 15 unlawfully occupying residential real property to a police officer in 16 the county in which the real property is located. The submitted
17 complaint must be in substantially the following form:

4 3. Upon receipt of the complaint, the police officer shall verify that 5 the person submitting the complaint is the record owner of the real
6 property or the authorized agent of the owner and appears otherwise
7 entitled to relief under this section. If verified, the police officer 8 shall, without delay, serve a notice to immediately vacate on all the 9 unlawful occupants and shall put the owner in possession of the real 10 property. Service may be accomplished by hand delivery of the notice to 11 an occupant or by posting the notice on the front door or entrance of 12 the dwelling. The police officer shall also attempt to verify the iden-13 ties of all persons occupying the dwelling and note the identities on 14 the return of service. If appropriate, the police officer may arrest any 15 person found in the dwelling for trespass, outstanding warrants, or any 16 other legal cause.

17 4. After a police officer serves a notice to immediately vacate, the 18 property owner or authorized agent may request that the police officer 19 stand by to keep the peace while the property owner or agent of the 20 owner changes the locks and removes the personal property of the unlaw-
21 ful occupants from the premises to or near or over the property line. A 22 police officer is not liable to the unlawful occupant or any other party
23 for loss, destruction, or damage of property. The property owner or 24 their authorized agent is not liable to an unlawful occupant or any 25 other party for the loss, destruction, or damage to the personal proper-26 ty unless such removal was wrongful.

27 5. A person may bring a civil cause of action for wrongful removal
28 under this section. A person harmed by a wrongful removal under this 29 section may be restored to possession of the real property and may 30 recover actual costs and damages incurred, statutory damages equal to 31 triple the fair market rent of the dwelling, court costs, and reasonable 32 attorney fees. The court shall advance the cause on the calendar.

33 6. The provisions of this section shall not limit the rights of a 34 property owner or limit the authority of a police officer to arrest an 35 unlawful occupant for trespassing, vandalism, theft, or other crime.

36 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 37 have become a law.
