Introduced by Sen. HOYLMAN-SIGAL -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to the use of certain residential dwellings by tenants who left the dwelling temporarily due to the health impacts of COVID-19

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 11 of subdivision a of section 5 of section 4 of 2 chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant
3 protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended by section 1 of part 4 J of chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

5 (11) housing accommodations which are not occupied by the tenant, not 6 including subtenants or occupants, as [~~his or her~~] such tenant's primary 7 residence, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. For the 8 purposes of determining primary residency, a tenant who is a victim of 9 domestic violence, as defined in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of 10 the social services law, who has left the unit because of such violence, 11 and who asserts an intent to return to the housing accommodation shall 12 be deemed to be occupying the unit as [~~his or her~~] such tenant's primary 13 residence. For the purposes of determining primary residency, a tenant 14 who has left the unit between the dates of March 12, 2020 and January 1, 15 2022 due to the health impacts of COVID-19 in the city of New York and 16 is a senior citizen or is a disabled person as defined in 9 NYCRR
17 2520.6, and who asserts an intent to return to the housing accommodation 18 shall be deemed to be occupying the unit as such tenant's primary resi-
19 dence. For the purposes of this paragraph, where a housing accommodation 20 is rented to a not-for-profit hospital for residential use, affiliated 21 subtenants authorized to use such accommodations by such hospital shall 22 be deemed to be tenants. For the purposes of this paragraph, where a 23 housing accommodation is rented to a not-for-profit for providing, as of 24 and after the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand 25 nineteen that amended this paragraph, permanent housing to individuals
