1 ratios or, as applicable, factors that have triggered a written event of 2 default notice to the department by the dormitory authority of the state
3 of New York; and

4 (f) "extraordinary financial assistance" shall mean state funds
5 provided to a facility upon such facility's request for the purpose of 6 assisting the facility to address serious financial instability. Such 7 funds may be derived from existing programs within the department,
8 special appropriations, or other funds.

9 (g) "improper delegation of management authority by the governing 10 authority or operator" of a [~~general hospital~~] facility shall include, 11 but not be limited to, the delegation to an entity that has not been 12 established as an operator of the [~~general hospital~~] facility of (i)
13 authority to hire or fire the administrator or other key management 14 employees; (ii) maintenance and control of the books and records; (iii)
15 authority over the disposition of assets and the incurring of liabil-16 ities on behalf of the facility; and (iv) the adoption and enforcement 17 of policies regarding the operation of the facility. The criteria set 18 forth in this paragraph shall not be the sole determining factors, but 19 indicators to be considered with such other factors that may be perti-
20 nent in particular instances. Professional expertise shall be exercised 21 in the utilization of the criteria. All of the listed indicia need not 22 be present in a given instance for there to be an improper delegation of 23 authority.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately; provided the amendments 25 to section 2806-a of the public health law made by section one of this 26 act shall not affect the repeal of such section and shall be deemed 27 repealed therewith.
