3

1 hundred twenty of this chapter and section two hundred forty-one of this 2 article shall be applicable to disability and family leave.

It shall be unlawful for any employer to interfere with, restrain, 3 2. 4 or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right provided 5 under this article, including: (a) failing to comply with the require-6 ments of section two hundred twenty-nine of this article, such as by 7 failing to provide an employee with the notice of rights required by 8 such section; (b) failing to provide an employee with complete and accu-9 rate information related to the submission of a claim for disability or 10 family leave benefits, such as by failing to inform the employee that it 11 is the employee's responsibility to submit the completed application 12 materials to the employer's insurance carrier or by failing or refusing to provide the employee with the name of the employer's insurance carri-13 14 er and/or the employer's policy number with said insurance carrier; (c) 15 failing to accurately complete and return to the employee the disability or family leave application paperwork within the time period specified 16 17 by the chair; (d) providing the employer's insurance carrier with inaccurate information about an employee's employment as it relates to the 18 employee's eligibility for disability or family leave benefits; (e) 19 20 refusing to allow an employee who has requested disability or family 21 leave under this article to begin leave until the employer's insurance 22 carrier has approved the employee's claim for disability or family leave benefits; (f) failing or refusing to carry disability or family leave 23 insurance as required by section two hundred eleven of this article; (g) 24 25 threatening termination, demotion, discipline, suspension, or reduction of hours or wages, reporting or threatening to report an employee's 26 27 suspected citizenship or immigration status or the suspected citizenship 28 or immigration status of a family member of the employee to a federal, state, or local agency, or threatening any other action against an 29 30 employee seeking to take disability or family leave that might reason-31 ably deter an employee from exercising a right provided under this arti-32 cle; or (h) threatening or taking any other action that may have the 33 effect of preventing or discouraging an employee from exercising a right 34 provided under this article.

35 3. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to diminish the rights, 36 privileges, or remedies of any employee under any collective bargaining 37 agreement or employment contract.

38 § 5. Section 203-b of the workers' compensation law, as added by 39 section 4 of part SS of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to 40 read as follows:

§ 203-b. Reinstatement following disability or family leave. Any 41 eligible employee of a covered employer who takes leave, including leave 42 43 for disability, under this article shall be entitled, on return from 44 such leave, to be restored by the employer to the position of employment 45 held by the employee when the leave commenced, or to be restored to a comparable position with comparable employment benefits, pay and other 46 47 terms and conditions of employment. The taking of family leave or leave 48 due to a disability shall not result in the loss of any employment benefit accrued prior to the date on which the leave commenced. Nothing in 49 50 this section shall be construed to entitle any restored employee to the accrual of any seniority or employment benefits during any period of 51 52 leave, or any right, benefit or position to which the employee would 53 have been entitled had the employee not taken the leave.

54 § 6. Section 203-c of the workers' compensation law, as added by 55 section 4 of part SS of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to 56 read as follows:

S. 921--A

1 § 203-c. Health insurance during disability or family leave. In 2 accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act (29 U.S.C. §§ 3 2601-2654), during any period of disability or family leave the employer 4 shall maintain any existing health benefits of the employee in force for 5 the duration of such leave as if the employee had continued to work from 6 the date he or she commenced disability or family leave until the date 7 he or she returns to employment.

8 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
