1 § 2748-a. Hyperbaric oxygen therapy pilot program. 1. The commissioner
2 shall establish a five-year pilot program to provide treatment to veter-
3 ans suffering from traumatic brain injuries or post-traumatic stress
4 disorder by means of hyperbaric oxygen therapy.

5 2. The commissioner shall require providers who are a part of the 6 hyperbaric oxygen therapy pilot program submit an annual report to the 7 commissioner. Such report shall include data analyzing the cost and 8 efficiency of the hyperbaric oxygen therapy program and any recommenda-
9 tions by the provider to improve or expand such hyperbaric oxygen thera-10 py pilot program.

11 3. On or before December thirty-first, two thousand thirty, the 12 commissioner shall submit a report to the governor, the temporary presi-
13 dent of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chair of the senate 14 committee on health, and the chair of the assembly health committee on 15 data received pursuant to subdivision two of this section. Such report 16 shall include an analysis of the cost and efficiency of the hyperbaric
17 oxygen therapy pilot program and the number of veterans receiving treat-18 ment through such pilot program.

19 § 2748-b. Hyperbaric oxygen therapy authorized. 1. Any authorized 20 medical professional may prescribe hyperbaric oxygen therapy to a veter-
21 an diagnosed with a traumatic brain injury or post-traumatic stress
22 disorder. An authorized medical professional who prescribes hyperbaric 23 oxygen therapy shall do so in a manner that complies with accepted stan-24 dards of care for hyperbaric oxygen therapy.

25 2. Any veteran who is a resident of the state of New York and has been 26 diagnosed with a traumatic brain injury or post-traumatic stress disor-27 der may receive hyperbaric oxygen therapy so long as such therapy has 28 been prescribed by an authorized medical professional.

29 § 2. The commissioner of health shall promulgate any rules or regu-
30 lations necessary for the implementation of this article.

31 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
