AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting third-party restaurant reservation services from arranging unauthorized restaurant reservations with food service establishments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "restaurant reservation anti-piracy act".

3 § 2. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 391-w 4 to read as follows:

5 § 391-w. Unauthorized restaurant reservations. 1. Definitions. For the 6 purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following 7 meanings:

8 (a) "Food service establishment" shall have the same meaning as that 9 term is defined in section three hundred ninety-one-v of this article.

10 (b) "Third-party restaurant reservation service" means any website, 11 mobile application or other internet service that: (i) offers or 12 arranges for reserving on-premises service for a customer at a food
13 service establishment; and (ii) that is owned and operated by a person
14 other than the person who owns such food service establishment. A 15 third-party restaurant reservation service shall not include any reser-
16 vation distribution channels that are authorized to distribute reserva-
17 tions by way of a contractual relationship with either the applicable
18 food service establishment or a contractual designee of the food service 19 establishment who obtained reservation distribution rights directly 20 from the food service establishment.

21 2. A third-party restaurant reservation service shall not list, adver-
22 tise, promote, or sell reservations for a food service establishment 23 through the website, mobile application or other platform of such third-24 party restaurant reservation service without a written agreement between 25 such third-party restaurant reservation service and such food service

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD15420-11-4

1 establishment to include reservations at the food service establishment 2 on such website, mobile application or other platform.

3 3. Any person who violates, or causes another person to violate, a 4 provision of this section or any rule promulgated pursuant thereto,
5 shall be subject to a civil penalty that shall not exceed one thousand 6 dollars for each violation. Violations by third-party restaurant reser-7 vation services under this section shall accrue on a daily basis for 8 each day and for each food service establishment with respect to which a 9 violation of this section or any rule promulgated pursuant to this 10 section was committed. A proceeding to recover any civil penalty or 11 restitution authorized pursuant to this section may be brought within 12 any agency of the state designated to conduct such proceedings.

13 § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 14 have become a law.
