AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to conducting meetings of public bodies via video conference technology

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision (c) of section 103 of the public officers law, as amended by section 1 of part WW of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

- (c) (i) A public body shall provide an opportunity for the public to attend, listen and observe meetings in at least one physical location at which a member participates.
- 7 (ii) Notwithstanding paragraph (i) of this subdivision, a public body 8 of a municipal corporation, as defined by section sixty-six of the 9 general construction law, may conduct a meeting via video conference if 10 such public body: (1) provides an opportunity for the public to contem-11 poraneously view and listen to such meeting online; (2) makes a video 12 recording of such meeting; and (3) posts such video recording on such 13 public body's website within five business days of such meeting. In 14 addition, upon request of a member of the public, such public body shall make available a specific location within the jurisdiction of such 15 municipal corporation for the public to view and listen to such meeting 16 online, provided such request is received at least forty-eight hours 17 prior to the time such meeting is scheduled to begin. 18
 - § 2. Subdivision (c) of section 103 of the public officers law, as added by chapter 289 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:
- 21 (c) (i) A public body that uses videoconferencing to conduct its meet-22 ings shall provide an opportunity for the public to attend, listen and 23 observe [at any site at which a member participates].

(ii) Notwithstanding paragraph (i) of this subdivision, a public body of a municipal corporation, as defined by section sixty-six of the general construction law, may conduct a meeting via video conference if such public body: (1) provides an opportunity for the public to contemporaneously view and listen to such meeting online; (2) makes a video recording of such meeting; and (3) posts such video recording on such public body's website within five business days of such meeting. In addition, upon request of a member of the public, such public body shall make available a specific location within the jurisdiction of such municipal corporation for the public to view and listen to such meeting online, provided such request is received at least forty-eight hours prior to the time such meeting is scheduled to begin.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided however, that the amendments to subdivision (c) of section 103 of the public officers law made by section one of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such subdivision pursuant to section 4 of part WW of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, as amended, when upon such date the 18 provisions of section two of this act shall take effect.
