AN ACT granting retroactive retirement service credit to David M. Sturtz

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, David M. Sturtz, currently a village of Liverpool police officer and member of the New York state and local police and fire retirement system covered by section 384-d of the retirement and social security law, who between October 14, 2002 and April 12, 2011 was employed by the Onondaga county sheriff's department where he was a member of the New York state and local employees' retirement system, and who, for reasons not ascribable to his own negligence, was not granted service credit under section 384-d of the retirement and social security law for his period of employment with the Onondaga county sheriff's department, shall be granted such service credit under section 384-d of the retirement and social security law and shall be entitled to the full rights and benefits associated with coverage under such section, provided a request to that effect is filed with the state comptroller within one year from the effective date of this act. Prior to David M. Sturtz submitting such request, he shall first file an application for transfer of membership with the New York state and local employees' retirement system. Upon the completion of such transfer, David M. Sturtz shall not be granted a refund of any employee contributions made by him to the New York state and local employees' retirement system.

§ 2. All past services costs associated with the implementation of this act shall be borne by the village of Liverpool.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
