AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to grand jury proceedings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (d) of subdivision 3 of section 190.25 of the 2 criminal procedure law is amended and a new paragraph (a-1) is added to 3 read as follows:

4 (a-1) A judge or justice of the superior court;

5 (d) An interpreter. Upon request of the grand jury or the court, the 6 prosecutor must provide an interpreter to interpret the testimony of any 7 witness who does not speak the English language well enough to be readi-
8 ly understood. Such interpreter must, if he or she has not previously 9 taken the constitutional oath of office, first take an oath before the 10 grand jury that he or she will faithfully interpret the testimony of the 11 witness and that he or she will keep secret all matters before such 12 grand jury within his or her knowledge;

13 § 2. Subdivision 4 of section 190.25 of the criminal procedure law is 14 amended by adding seven new paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) and 15 (i) to read as follows:

16 (c) In addition to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, when,
17 following submission to a grand jury of a criminal charge or charges,
18 the grand jury dismisses all charges presented or directs the district
19 attorney to file in a local criminal court a prosecutor's information
20 charging an offense other than a felony, as provided in subdivision one 21 of section 190.70 of this article, an application may be made to the 22 superior court for disclosure of the following material relating to the 23 proceedings before such grand jury:

24 (i) the criminal charge or charges submitted;

1 (ii) the legal instructions provided to the grand jury;

2 (iii) the testimony of all public servants who testified in an offi-
3 cial capacity before the grand jury and of all persons who provided 4 expert testimony; and

5 (iv) the testimony of all other persons who testified before the grand 6 jury, redacted as necessary to prevent discovery of their names and such 7 other personal data or information that may reveal or help to reveal 8 their identities.

9 (d) The application specified in paragraph (c) of this subdivision may 10 be made by any person, must be in writing and, except where made by the 11 people, must be upon notice to the people. The court shall direct or 12 provide notice to any other appropriate person or agency. Where more 13 than one application is made hereunder in relation to such a dismissal
14 or direction, the court may consolidate such applications and determine 15 them together. When no application hereunder is made, the superior court 16 may order disclosure on its own motion as provided in paragraph (e) of 17 this subdivision at any time following notice to the people and an 18 opportunity to be heard and reasonable efforts to notify and provide an 19 opportunity to be heard to any other appropriate person or agency.

20 (e) Upon an application as provided in paragraph (c) of this subdivi-
21 sion or on the court's own motion, the court, after providing persons 22 given notice an opportunity to be heard, shall determine whether:

23 (i) a significant number of members of the general public in the coun-24 ty in which the grand jury was drawn and impaneled are likely aware that 25 a criminal investigation had been conducted in connection with the 26 subject matter of the grand jury proceeding; and

27 (ii) a significant number of members of the general public in such 28 county are likely aware of the identity of the subject against whom the 29 criminal charge specified in paragraph (c) of this subdivision was 30 submitted to a grand jury, or such subject has consented to such disclo-31 sure; and

32 (iii) there is significant public interest in disclosure.

33 Where the court is satisfied that all three of these factors are pres-34 ent, and except as provided in paragraph (f) of this subdivision, the 35 court shall direct the district attorney to promptly disclose the items
36 specified in paragraph (c) of this subdivision.

37 (f) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subdivision, on 38 application of the district attorney or any interested person, or on its 39 own motion, the court shall limit disclosure of the items specified in 40 paragraph (c) of this subdivision, in whole or part, where the court
41 determines there is a reasonable likelihood that such disclosure may 42 lead to discovery of the identity of a witness who is not a public serv-43 ant or expert witness, imperil the health or safety of a grand juror who 44 participated in the proceeding or a witness who appeared before the 45 grand jury, jeopardize an identified current or future criminal investi-
46 gation, create a specific threat to public safety, or despite the inter-47 ests reflected by this subdivision is contrary to the interests of 48 justice.

49 (g) Where a court determines not to direct disclosure, in whole or in 50 part, pursuant to this subdivision, it shall do so promptly in a written 51 order that shall explain with specificity, to the extent practicable,
52 the basis for its determination.

53 (h) Where an application pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision 54 has been denied, in whole or in part, the applicant may appeal as of 55 right from such order to the appellate division in the department in

1 which such order was entered, in accordance with article four hundred 2 sixty of this chapter.
3 (i) Nothing in this paragraph or paragraph (c), (d), (e), (f), (g) or 4 (h) of this subdivision shall be interpreted as limiting or restricting 5 any broader right of access to grand jury materials under any other law,
6 common law or court precedent.

7 § 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 8 have become a law.
