AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to employee access to personnel records

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 210-b to 1 2 read as follows: 3 § 210-b. Access to personnel records. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, 4 5 have the following meanings: б (a) "Employee" means a person currently employed or formerly employed 7 by an employer. (b) "Employer" means any individual, corporation, partnership, labor 8 organization, unincorporated association or any other legal business, 9 including any governmental entity or public employer as defined in para-10 graph (a) of subdivision six of section two hundred one of the civil 11 12 service law, and any commercial entity, including agents of such employ-13 er. 14 (c) "Personnel record" means a record kept by an employer that identifies an employee, to the extent that the record is used or has been 15 16 used, or may affect or be used relative to that employee's qualifica-17 tions for employment, promotion, transfer, additional compensation or 18 disciplinary action. A personnel record shall include a record in the 19 possession of a person, corporation, partnership or other association that has a contractual agreement with the employer to keep or supply a 1 personnel record as provided in this section. A personnel record shall 2 3 not include information of a personal nature about a person other than 4 the employee if disclosure of the information would constitute a clearly 5 unwarranted invasion of such other person's privacy. Without limiting 6 the applicability or generality of the foregoing, all of the following 7 written information or documents to the extent prepared by an employer 8 regarding an employee shall be included in the personnel record for that 9 employee: the name, address, date of birth, job title and description; 10 rate of pay and any other compensation paid to the employee; starting 11 date of employment; the job application of the employee; resumes or 12 other forms of employment inquiry submitted to the employer in response to his advertisement by the employee; all employee performance evalu-13 ations, including but not limited to, employee evaluation documents; 14 15 written warnings of substandard performance; lists of probationary periods; waivers signed by the employee; copies of dated termination 16 17 notices; any other documents relating to disciplinary action regarding the employee. A personnel record shall be maintained in typewritten or 18 printed form or may be handwritten in indelible ink. 19 20 2. An employer shall notify an employee within ten days of the employ-21 er placing in the employee's personnel record any information to the 22 extent that the information is, has been used or may be used, to negatively affect the employee's qualification for employment, promotion, 23 transfer, additional compensation or the possibility that the employee 24 25 will be subject to disciplinary action. An employer receiving a written request from an employee to access such employee's personnel record 26 27 shall provide the employee with a copy of such personnel record, at no 28 cost to the employee, within five business days of submission of a written request for such copy to the employer. An employer shall not be 29 30 required to allow an employee to review the employee's personnel record 31 on more than two separate occasions in a calendar year; provided, howev-32 er, that the notification and review caused by the placing of negative 33 information in the personnel record shall not be deemed to be one of the 34 two annually permitted reviews. 3. If there is a disagreement with any information contained in a 35 36 personnel record, removal or correction of such information may be mutu-37 ally agreed upon by the employer and the employee. If an agreement is not reached, the employee may submit a written statement explaining the 38 39 employee's position which shall be contained and become a part of such employee's personnel record. The statement shall be included when said 40 information is transmitted to a third party as long as the original 41 42 information is retained as part of the file. If an employer places any 43 information in a personnel record which such employer knew or should 44 have known to be false, the employee shall have remedy through the 45 collective bargaining agreement, other personnel procedures or judicial 46 process to have such information expunged. An employee may bring an 47 action in a court of competent jurisdiction to have false information removed from such employee's personnel record. The provisions of this 48 section shall not prohibit the removal of information contained in a 49 50 personnel record upon mutual agreement of the employer and employee for 51 any reason. 52 4. An employer shall retain the complete personnel record of any employee as required to be kept under this section without deletions or 53 54 expungement of information from the date of employment of such employee to a date three years after the termination of employment of the employ-55

13 14 against such employer in any administrative or judicial proceeding such employer shall retain any personnel record required to be kept under this section which is relevant to such action until the final disposition thereof. 5. If an employer elects to have a written personnel policy regarding the terms and conditions of employment, such personnel policy, as the same may be amended from time to time, shall be continuously maintained at the office of such employer where personnel matters are administered. 6. Nothing in this section shall be construed to supersede the terms of a collective bargaining agreement, provided, however, that such agreement provides at least substantially similar access by an employee to their personnel records as that provided by this section. 7. Any violation of this section by an employer or any other person shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than 15 twenty-five hundred dollars. This section shall be enforced by the attorney general. 16 17 8. No employer or any other person shall discharge, threaten, penalize, or in any other manner discriminate or retaliate against any 18 employee who exercises such employee's rights under this section. As 19 used in this section, to threaten, penalize, or in any other manner 20 21 discriminate or retaliate against an employee includes, but is not 22 limited to, threatening to contact or contacting United States immigration authorities or otherwise reporting or threatening to report an 23 employee's suspected citizenship or immigration status or the suspected 24 25 citizenship or immigration status of an employee's family or household member, as defined in subdivision two of section four hundred fifty-26 27 nine-a of the social services law, to a federal, state or local agency. 28 9. An employee may bring a civil action in a court of competent juris-29 diction against any employer or persons alleged to have discriminated or 30 retaliated against such employee for the exercise of such employee's 31 rights under this section. The court shall have jurisdiction to restrain 32 violations of this section, within two years of such violation, regard-33 less of the dates of employment of the employee, and to order all appro-34 priate relief, including: enjoining the conduct of any person or employer; ordering payment of liquidated damages, costs, and reasonable 35 36 attorneys' fees to the employee by the person or entity in violation; 37 and, where the person or entity in violation is an employer, ordering rehiring or reinstatement of the employee to his or her former position 38 39 with restoration of seniority or an award of front pay in lieu of reinstatement, and an award of lost compensation and damages (including, but 40 41 not limited to, compensatory and punitive damages), costs and reasonable 42 attorneys' fees. Liquidated damages shall be calculated as an amount not 43 more than twenty thousand dollars. The court shall award liquidated 44 damages to every employee aggrieved under this section, in addition to 45 any other remedies permitted by this section.

46 10. At or before the commencement of any action under this section, 47 notice thereof shall be served upon the attorney general by the employ- 48 ee.

49 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 50 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment, 51 and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation 52 of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 53 completed on or before such effective date.
