Introduced by M. of A. LAVINE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting motor vehicle manufacturers from using or disclosing certain consumer data

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 198-d to read as follows:

§ 198-d. Driving behavior data collection prohibited. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Consumer" means the purchaser, lessee or transferee, other than for purposes of resale, of a motor vehicle.

(2) "Automated vehicle" means a motor vehicle that has the capability to drive the vehicle without the active control or monitoring of a human operator.

(3) "Connected vehicle" means a motor vehicle that can communicate bidirectionally with other systems outside of such vehicle.

(b) A motor vehicle manufacturer that produces and sells automated vehicles or connected vehicles shall not use or disclose to a third party any data regarding the driving behavior of consumers for use by a motor vehicle insurer.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
