CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

proposing an amendment to section 2 of article 3 of the constitution, in relation to increasing the length of the term of office and imposing term limits for members of the legislature

Section 1. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That section 2 of article 3 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

§ 2. The senate shall consist of fifty members, except as hereinafter provided. The senators [~~elected in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five shall hold their offices for three years, and their successors~~] shall be [~~chosen~~] elected for terms of two years; provided, that senators elected in the year two thousand twenty-four and in subsequent years shall hold their offices for six years. The assembly shall consist of one hundred and fifty members. The assembly members [~~elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, and their successors,~~] shall be [~~chosen~~] elected for terms of two years; provided, that assembly members elected in the year two thousand twenty-four and in subsequent years shall hold their offices for six years.

No person elected to office in the senate in the year two thousand twenty-four and in subsequent years shall serve as a member of the senate for more than three consecutive six year terms. No person elected to office in the assembly in the year two thousand twenty-four and in subsequent years shall serve as a member of the assembly for more than three consecutive six year terms. Any partial term of office held as a member of the legislature prior to the election to a consecutive six year term shall not be used to calculate any term limitation imposed pursuant to this paragraph.

§ 2. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the provisions of the foregoing amendments shall apply only to terms of offices commencing after such amendments shall have been adopted pursuant to section 1 of article 19 of the constitution.

§ 3. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the foregoing amendments be referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the next succeeding general election of members of the assembly, and, in conformity with section 1 of article 19 of the constitution, be published three months previous to the time of such election.
