AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to reserved funds for special educational services for certain children with disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph k of subdivision 4 of 2 section 4405 of the education law, as amended by section 19-a of part A 3 of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

4 (ii) The tuition methodology established pursuant to this subdivision
5 for the two thousand twenty-two--two thousand twenty-three school year 6 and annually thereafter shall authorize approved providers to retain 7 funds in excess of their allowable and reimbursable costs incurred for 8 services and programs provided to school-age and preschool students. The 9 amount of funds that may be annually retained shall not exceed the 10 allowable surplus percentage of the approved provider's total allowable 11 and reimbursable costs for services and programs provided to school-age 12 and preschool students for the school year from which the funds are to 13 be retained, as defined in subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph; 14 provided that such funds shall not be recoverable on reconciliation of 15 tuition rates and provided further that any interest earned or invest-16 ments realized on such funds shall supplement and not supplant any funds 17 provided by the tuition methodology once retained. For purposes of this 18 subparagraph, "approved providers" shall mean private residential or 19 non-residential schools for the education of students with disabilities 20 that are located within the state, special act school districts, and 21 programs approved pursuant to section forty-four hundred ten of this 22 article that are subject to tuition rate reconciliation.

23 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to 24 have been in full force and effect on and after April 1, 2021.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
