Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Clark) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to publishing of common data sets reported by colleges

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 609-a to read as follows:

§ 609-a. Publishing of common data sets. 1. As used in this section:

(a) "Common data set" shall refer to the survey created by the Common Data Set Initiative, and completed by colleges, pertaining to such college's admissions and financial aid process, annual expenses, academic offerings, graduation rate, student demographics, instructional faculty and class sizes, degrees conferred, and more.

(b) "Drop-down menu" shall refer to a graphical control element that allows a user of a website to choose one value from a list.

2. Each college in this state shall be required to complete, publish, and prominently display such college's responses to the common data set survey on an annual basis on such college's website.

3. (a) The commissioner shall compile the responses to the common data set survey from each college in this state and publish such responses in a clear and prominent location on the department's website.

(b) In compiling and publishing such responses, the commissioner shall ensure that a user of such website is able to select and view such responses for an individual college via a drop-down menu.

(c) The commissioner shall further represent such responses to the common data set survey on a digital statewide map that allows a user to select and view each college and such college's responses based on the geographic location of such college.

(d) The commissioner shall also ensure that website users are able to find responses for individual colleges via a search function.

4. The commissioner shall have the discretion to set civil penalties for any college which willfully violates the provisions of this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
