May 24, 2024

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Lemondes) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to the identification of correction officers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 22-b to read as follows:

§ 22-b. Identification of correction officers. No correction officer employed in a correctional facility shall be required to wear or display a tag displaying the correction officer's name, in whole or in part. Correction officers employed in such facilities shall be identified by a tag or other display of the officer's badge number only.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
