STATE OF NEW YORK

10591

IN ASSEMBLY

June 20, 2024

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Bronson, McGowan) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to permitting schools to allow trade unions to make a recruitment presentation in a high school

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 807-e to read as follows:

§ 807-e. Trade union recruitment. The principal of any high school may allow any local trade union, upon request, to enter the school for the purpose of trade union recruitment, including, but not limited to: making presentations; disseminating literature; and answering questions by students. For the purposes of this section, the term "trade union" shall mean an organized association of workers in a trade, group of trades, or profession, formed to protect and further their rights and interests.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of July next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD09125-01-3