AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to prohibiting conflicts of interest among board of elections employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The election law is amended by adding a new section 3-304 2 to read as follows:

§ 3-304. Board employees; conflicts of interest. 1. No board of elections employee, with the exception of a member of a county committee as defined in section 2-104 of this chapter and a district leader as outlined in section 2-110 of this chapter, shall engage in or partic-7 ipate in any trade or business which creates, or may tend to create, an actual or potential conflict of interest. No board of elections employee, with the exception of a member of a county committee as defined in 10 section 2-104 of this chapter and a district leader as outlined in 11 section 2-110 of this chapter, shall maintain a financial interest, 12 directly or indirectly, in a company providing services to a candidate 13 who has an election overseen by such employee's office, including but 14 not limited to, printing companies, election consulting companies, 15 direct mail companies and digital marketing companies. No board of 16 elections employee, with the exception of a member of a county committee as defined in section 2-104 of this chapter and a district leader as 17 18 outlined in section 2-110 of this chapter, shall maintain a financial 19 interest, directly or indirectly, in or be employed by a vendor or 20 company that sells voting machines, electronic pollbooks, printers or other technical or electronic equipment. A violation of any of the 21 provisions of this subdivision shall be cause for discipline by the board of elections, including removal of the board of elections employee.

3 2. No board of elections employee, with the exception of a member of a 4 county committee as defined in section 2-104 of this chapter and a 5 district leader as outlined in section 2-110 of this chapter, shall remain on the board of elections payroll while also a candidate for an 7 office who has an election overseen by the board at which they are employed. For the purposes of this article, a board of elections employ-9 ee shall be deemed a candidate for elective office upon the filing of 10 designating petitions for such office or, where nominations for such 11 office are made other than by petition, upon acceptance of a nomination. 12 Such employee may remain in "leave without pay" status until such time as his or her candidacy shall cease, or upon the day following the 13 certification of election results for such office, whichever comes 14 15 first. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, when there are no primary elections for the office being sought by a candidate that is 16 17 employed by the board of elections, that candidate may remain on the board of elections payroll for no more than ninety days prior to a 18 19 general election.

20 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that subdivision 21 1 of section 3-304 of the election law, as added by section one of this 22 act, shall take effect one year after this act shall have become a law.
