1 purposes of this article, a board of elections employee shall be deemed 2 a candidate for elective office upon the filing of a designating or 3 nominating petition for such office or, where nominations for such 4 office are made other than by petition, upon acceptance of a nomination.
5 Such employee may remain in "leave without pay" status until such time 6 as his or her candidacy shall cease, or upon the day following the 7 certification of election results for such office, whichever comes 8 first. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, when there are no 9 primary elections for the office being sought by a candidate that is 10 employed by the board of elections, that candidate may remain on the 11 board of elections payroll for no more than ninety days prior to a 12 general election.

13 (b) It shall not be a conflict of interest for a board employee to 14 file a designating petition for a party position, including a member of 15 a county committee as defined in section 2-104 of this chapter, district
16 leader as outlined in section 2-110 of this chapter, member of the state 17 committee as described in section 2-102 of this chapter, a delegate or 18 an alternate delegate to judicial district nominating conventions as 19 described in section 6-124 of this chapter, or delegate or an alternate 20 delegate to national party conventions as described in section 2-122 of 21 this chapter. However, upon another person filing a valid designating 22 petition creating a primary for that party position, then the board
23 employee may remain in "leave without pay" status until his or her 24 candidacy shall cease or upon the day following the certification of the 25 elections results whichever is first.

26 3. It shall not be considered a conflict of interest for a board of 27 elections employee who is a member of a county committee as defined in 28 section 2-104 of this chapter, a district leader as outlined in section 29 2-110 of this chapter, a member of the state committee as described in 30 section 2-102 of this chapter, a delegate or an alternate delegate to 31 judicial district nominating conventions as described in section 6-124 32 of this chapter, or a delegate or an alternate delegate to national 33 party conventions as described in section 2-122 of this chapter who, as 34 part of their duties in said party position, endorses or supports a 35 candidate for a party position or public office.

36 § 2. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 37 law.
