45 evaluation for all known functional impairments. Such evaluations shall 46 take place without undue delay.

54 regulations authorizing disclosure of the results of the assessment to 55 the defendant's attorney, the prosecutor, the local probation depart-

18 prosecutor and defendant can agree to diversion based on the recommenda-
19 tions in the evaluation report. If the parties disagree, either party
20 may request a hearing on the issue of whether the ~~[eligible]~~ defendant
21 is an eligible defendant and should be offered ~~[alcohol or substance~~
22 ~~use]~~ treatment pursuant to this article. At such a proceeding, which 23 shall be held as soon as practicable so as to facilitate early inter-24 vention in the event that the defendant is found to need ~~[alcohol or~~ 25 ~~substance use]~~ treatment, the court may consider oral and written argu-

42 ~~chapter]~~ except sealed cases defined in section 160.50 or 160.55 of this 43 chapter.

44 (b) Upon completion of such a proceeding, the court shall consider and 45 make findings of fact with respect to whether:

46 (i) the defendant is an eligible defendant as defined in subdivision
47 one of section 216.00 of this article;

48 (ii) ~~[the defendant has a history of alcohol or substance use;~~

49 ~~(iii) such alcohol or substance use]~~ the defendant's functional
50 impairment is likely a contributing factor to [the defendant's criminal 51 behavior] their current or future involvement in the criminal legal 52 system;

53 ~~[(iv)]~~ (iii) the defendant's participation in judicial diversion could 54 effectively address such ~~[use]~~ functional impairment; and

55 ~~[(v) institutional confinement of the defendant is or may not be~~ 56 ~~necessary for the protection of the public]~~ (iv) the defendant's access

1 to treatment through this article would benefit the public and the 2 defendant.

3 (c) Where there has been a finding in the clinical evaluation that the 4 defendant has a mental disorder, as defined in the most recent edition
5 of the diagnostic and statistical manual of mental disorders, or a clin-
6 ical diagnosis of another serious functional impairment there shall be a
7 presumption that the defendant is an eligible defendant.

8 4. (a) When an authorized court determines, pursuant to paragraph (b) 9 of subdivision three of this section, that an eligible defendant should 10 be offered [~~alcohol or substance use~~] treatment, or when the parties and 11 the court agree to [~~an eligible defendant's participation in alcohol or~~ 12 ~~substance use~~] treatment, an eligible defendant [~~may~~] shall be allowed 13 to participate in the judicial diversion program offered by this arti-
14 cle. [~~Prior to the court's issuing an order granting judicial diver-~~
15 ~~sion, the eligible defendant shall be required to enter a plea of guilty~~
16 ~~to the charge or charges, provided, however, that no such guilty plea~~ 17 ~~shall be required when:~~

18 ~~(a) the people and the court consent to the entry of such an order~~ 19 ~~without a plea of guilty; or~~

20 ~~(b) based on a finding of exceptional circumstances, the court deter-~~
21 ~~mines that a plea of guilty shall not be required. For purposes of this~~ 22 ~~subdivision, exceptional circumstances exist when, regardless of the~~ 23 ~~ultimate disposition of the case, the entry of a plea of guilty is like-~~
24 ~~ly to result in severe collateral consequences.]~~

25 (b) Eligible defendants shall not be required to submit a plea of 26 guilty to participate in judicial diversion.

27 (c) Prior participation in treatment or court-mandated treatment shall 28 not preclude future treatment participation.

29 (d) Eligible defendants shall not be precluded from diversion because 30 of a lack of resources in the community.

31 (e) An eligible defendant shall not be precluded from diversion
32 because of their gender identity.

33 5. The [~~defendant~~] participant shall agree on the record or in writing 34 to abide by the [~~release~~] judicial diversion program conditions set by 35 the court, which[~~r~~] shall include[+] participation in a specified period 36 of [~~alcohol or substance use~~] treatment at a specified program or 37 programs [~~identified by the court, which may include periods of detoxi-~~
38 ~~fication,~~]. In setting the program conditions, the court shall consider 39 the participant's assessment and treatment plan, as agreed upon by the 40 participant and treatment provider, in addition to the clinical evalu-
41 ation. Judicial diversion program conditions may include:

42 (a) limited or intensive outpatient treatment in which the participant
43 may reside in the community, regardless of whether they have permanent 44 housing or not;

45 (b) limited periods of detoxification or inpatient rehabilitation for 46 participants with substance use disorders as preparation for a treatment
47 admission or medication induction;

48 (c) residential [~~or outpatient~~] treatment[~~, or both~~]. If ordering
49 residential treatment, placement shall be in the most integrated setting 50 appropriate for the participant's needs to avoid discrimination on the 51 basis of disability, in accordance with federal law, as determined after 52 taking into account the views of the health care professional who 53 conducted the mental health assessment or alcohol and substance use 54 evaluation and any health care professionals responsible for providing 55 such treatment or monitoring the [~~defendant's~~] participant's progress in 56 such treatment; [~~and may include: (i)~~]

(d) periodic court appearances, which may ~~[include periodic urinalysis, (ii)]~~ be an electronic appearance pursuant to section 182.20 of this part upon consent of the participant. The court shall consider the participant's service engagement and treatment needs when scheduling periodic court appearances and shall attempt to minimize treatment disruption;

(e) periodic drug screening as needed, when recommended by the treatment provider as part of a participant's treatment plan. Drug screening methods shall only include oral swabs, sweat patches, or non-observed urinalysis;

(f) other treatment as recommended by the treatment provider; and

(g) a requirement that the ~~[defendant]~~ participant refrain from engaging in criminal behaviors~~[, (iii) if the defendant needs treatment for opioid use, that he or she]~~.

5-a. The court shall not require a participant to consent to share, or authorize the treatment provider to share, protected health information in accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act Privacy Rule (45 CFR Parts 160 and 164), with the court. Exceptions include:

(a) record of attendance and relevant barriers to attendance;

(b) treatment plan and any recommended changes to the plan during participation in judicial diversion; and

(c) drug toxicology results, when part of the treatment plan.

5-b. If the participant has one or more conditions requiring prescription medication they may participate in and receive medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice~~[, provided that no]~~.

(b) No court shall require the use of any specified type or brand of drug during the course of medically prescribed ~~[drug]~~ treatments~~[,]; and~~

(c) No court shall penalize or sanction a participant for periods of voluntary hospitalization, respite care, or other forms of supportive care.

5-c. Treatment providers shall collaborate with the participant and clinical court staff to create a discharge plan prior to completion of diversion to incorporate peer support, housing and employment support, and how to access other community-based health services. If a participant finishes their treatment plan, they shall be considered to have successfully completed their obligation to the court, regardless of their ability to secure permanent housing, employment, or other personal goals identified by the participant.

5-d. Upon request by the defense, the court shall allow participants to consult a different mental health care professional for a second opinion and propose an alternative treatment plan. Any alternative opinion or alternative treatment plan shall be considered by the court when determining the treatment plan.

6. Upon ~~[an eligible defendant's]~~ a participant's agreement to abide by the conditions set by the court, the court shall issue a securing order providing for bail or release on the ~~[defendant's]~~ participant's own recognizance and conditioning any release upon the agreed upon conditions pursuant to article five hundred ten of this chapter. The period of ~~[alcohol or substance use]~~ treatment shall begin as specified by the court and as soon as practicable after the ~~[defendant's]~~ participant's release, taking into account the availability of treatment, so

1 as to facilitate early intervention with respect to the [~~defendant's~~
2 ~~substance use or condition~~] participant's functional impairment and the 3 effectiveness of the treatment program. In the event that a treatment 4 program is not immediately available or becomes unavailable during the 5 course of the [~~defendant's participation~~] participant's involvement in 6 the judicial diversion program, the court may release the [~~defendant~~]
7 participant pursuant to the securing order.

8 7. When participating in judicial diversion treatment pursuant to this 9 article, any resident of this state who is covered under a private 10 health insurance policy or contract issued for delivery in this state
11 pursuant to article thirty-two, forty-three or forty-seven of the insur-
12 ance law or article forty-four of the public health law, or who is 13 covered by a self-funded plan which provides coverage for the diagnosis
14 and treatment of [~~chemical abuse and chemical dependence~~] functional
15 impairment however defined in such policy; shall first seek reimburse-
16 ment for such treatment in accordance with the provisions of such policy
17 or contract. The court in its discretion may order the participant to 18 apply for public insurance if they so qualify. The court shall not deny 19 access to treatment for inability to pay.

20 8. (a) During the period of a [~~defendant's participation~~] partic-
21 ipant's involvement in the judicial diversion program, the treatment
22 court shall retain jurisdiction of the [~~defendant~~] participant,
23 provided, however, that the court [~~may~~] shall allow such [~~defendant~~]
24 participant to (i) reside in another jurisdiction, [~~ex~~] and/or (ii)
25 participate in [~~alcohol and substance use~~] treatment and other programs 26 in the jurisdiction where the [~~defendant~~] participant resides or in any 27 other jurisdiction, while participating in a judicial diversion program
28 under conditions set by the court and agreed to by the [~~defendant~~]
29 participant pursuant to subdivisions five and six of this section. The 30 court may transfer the participant's case to the judicial diversion
31 court in the county in which the participant resides pursuant to subdi-
32 vision five of section 170.15 of this part, subdivision four of section
33 180.20 of this part, or section 230.21 of this part to ensure continuity
34 of treatment.

35 (b) The court may require the [~~defendant~~] participant to appear in 36 court [~~at any time~~] or remotely to enable the court to monitor the 37 [~~defendant's~~] participant's progress in [~~alcohol or substance use~~]
38 treatment. The frequency of appearances shall take into account a 39 person's individual circumstances and treatment progress in accordance 40 with best practices. The court shall provide notice, reasonable under 41 the circumstances, to the people, the treatment provider, the [~~defend-~~ 42 ~~ant~~] participant and the [~~defendant's~~] participant's counsel whenever it 43 orders or otherwise requires the appearance of the [~~defendant-in~~] 44 participation for court appearances. Failure to appear as required with-45 out reasonable cause therefor shall constitute a violation of the condi-
46 tions of the court's agreement with the [~~defendant~~] participant.

47 9. (a) If at any time during the [~~defendant's participation~~] partic-48 ipant's engagement in the judicial diversion program, the court has 49 reasonable grounds to believe that the [~~defendant~~] participant has 50 violated a [~~release~~] program condition in an important respect or has 51 willfully failed to appear before the court as requested, the court
52 except as provided in subdivision two of section 510.50 of this chapter
53 regarding a failure to appear, shall direct the [~~defendant~~] participant
54 to appear [~~or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropri-~~
55 ~~ate peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custo-~~
56 ~~dy and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay,~~

~~provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who requires treatment for opioid use be deemed to have violated a release condition on the basis of his or her participation in medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice]~~ for a hearing on the violation pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision with at least forty-eight hours notice to the participant or the participant's counsel, unless notice is waived by the participant. The court may not modify the participant's securing order until such time as the hearing's conclusion. The relevant provisions of section 530.60 of this chapter relating to issuance of securing orders shall apply to such proceedings under this subdivision. There is a presumption that a bench warrant shall not be issued for participants in judicial diversion.

(b) In determining whether a [~~defendant~~] participant violated a condition of [~~his or her release under~~] the judicial diversion program or willfully failed to appear in court, the court [~~may~~] shall conduct a [~~summary~~] hearing consistent with due process [~~and sufficient~~] to satisfy the court that the [~~defendant~~] participant has, in fact, violated the condition or willfully failed to appear.

(i) The court shall provide reasonable notice to the participant and the participant's counsel, but in no circumstance less than forty-eight hours notice, unless notice is waived by the participant.

(ii) The people shall bear the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the participant has violated a condition of the judicial diversion program in an important respect. The participant may cross-examine witnesses and may present relevant, admissible evidence on their own behalf. The court shall consider all factors relating to the participant's current mental health or cognitive status, their engagement with judicial diversion prior to this time, as well as any other factors that may have impacted their participation or alleged violation.

(iii) A bench warrant shall not be issued absent a finding by the court that the alleged violation or failure to appear was willful. In determining willfulness, the court shall consider: the nexus between the participant's violation or failure to appear and their functional impairment; whether an appropriate treatment plan is currently in place; the participant's history of making court appearances in the instant matter; and a history of positive engagement with treatment staff or the court.

(iv) Under no circumstances shall a participant who requires treatment for a functional impairment be deemed to have violated a program condition on the participation in medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice.

(v) If the court finds a reasonable explanation or mitigation for any alleged violation or alleged willful failure to appear, the securing order shall not be modified.

(vi) The court may seal portions of the proceeding related to collateral consequences at the request of the participant and participant's counsel.

(c) If the court determines by clear and convincing evidence that the [~~defendant~~] participant has violated a condition of his or her release under the judicial diversion program, the court may permit the participant to continue their treatment mandate as previously ordered; modify the [~~conditions thereof, reconsider the order of recognizance or bail~~]

~~pursuant to subdivision two of section 510.30 of this chapter,~~ treatment plan per the recommendation of the treatment provider; hold treatment in abeyance until the underlying matter that caused the violation is resolved; or terminate the ~~[defendant's]~~ participant's participation in the judicial diversion program~~[, and when applicable proceed with the defendant's sentencing in accordance with the agreement. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the court may impose any sentence authorized for the crime of conviction in accordance with the plea agreement, or any lesser sentence authorized to be imposed on a felony drug offender pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision two of section 70.70 of the penal law taking into account]~~ if no other treatment option is available. The court shall consider:

(i) the length of time the [defendant] participant spent in residential treatment and how best to continue treatment [while the defendant is serving that sentence. In determining what action to take for a violation of a release condition, the court shall consider];

(ii) all relevant circumstances, including the views of the prosecutor, the defense and the [alcohol or substance use] participant's interest in continuing treatment [provider, and the extent to which persons who ultimately successfully complete a drug treatment regimen sometimes] or the program; and

(iii) the role of relapse [by not abstaining from alcohol or substance use or by failing to comply fully with all requirements imposed by a treatment program] in recovery and treatment.

(d) The court shall ~~[also consider using]~~ use a system of graduated and appropriate responses ~~[or sanctions]~~ designed to address such inappropriate behaviors~~[, protect public safety]~~ and facilitate, where possible, successful completion of the ~~[alcohol or substance use]~~ treatment program.

~~[(d)]~~ (e) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed ~~[as preventing a court from terminating a defendant's participation in the judicial diversion program for violating a release condition when such a termination is necessary to preserve public safety. Nor shall anything in this subdivision be construed]~~ as precluding the prosecution of a ~~[defendant] participant~~ for the commission of a different offense while participating in the judicial diversion program. Prior to such termination, the participant shall be entitled to a hearing at which clear and convincing evidence shall be offered to support that there exists a substantial risk to an identifiable person. In the absence of such a hearing and such a finding, there can be no termination.

~~[(e)]~~ (f) A ~~[defendant] participant~~ may at any time advise the court that ~~[he or she wishes]~~ they wish to terminate participation in the judicial diversion program, at which time the court shall ~~[proceed with the case and, where applicable, shall impose sentence in accordance with the plea agreement. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the court may impose any sentence authorized for the crime of conviction in accordance with the plea agreement, or any lesser sentence authorized to be imposed on a felony drug offender pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision two of section 70.70 of the penal law taking into account the length of time the defendant spent in residential treatment and how best to continue treatment while the defendant is serving that sentence]~~ transfer the case back to the appropriate trial part.

10. Upon the court's determination that the ~~[defendant] participant~~ has successfully completed the required period of ~~[alcohol or substance use]~~ treatment and has otherwise satisfied the conditions required for

1 successful completion of the judicial diversion program, the court shall 2 ~~[comply with the terms and conditions it set for final disposition when~~ 3 ~~it accepted the defendant's agreement to participate in the judicial~~ 4 ~~diversion program. Such disposition may include, but is not limited to:~~ 5 ~~(a) requiring the defendant to undergo a period of interim probation~~
6 ~~supervision and, upon the defendant's successful completion of the~~ 7 ~~interim probation supervision term, notwithstanding the provision of any~~
8 ~~other law, permitting the defendant to withdraw his or her guilty plea~~
9 ~~and dismissing the indictment; or (b) requiring the defendant to undergo~~
10 ~~a period of interim probation supervision and, upon successful~~
11 ~~completion of the interim probation supervision term, notwithstanding~~ 12 ~~the provision of any other law, permitting the defendant to withdraw his~~ 13 ~~or her guilty plea, enter a guilty plea to a misdemeanor offense and~~ 14 ~~sentencing the defendant as promised in the plea agreement, which may~~ 15 ~~include a period of probation supervision pursuant to section 65.00 of~~ 16 ~~the penal law; or (c) allowing the defendant to withdraw his or her~~
17 ~~guilty plea and dismissing]~~ dismiss the indictment or superior court
