Introduced by M. of A. CARROLL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general business law and the banking law, in relation to prohibiting a consumer reporting agency or lender from using an individual's late payment of cashless tolls to determine such individual's credit worthiness

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraphs (vii) and (viii) of paragraph 1 of subdivision (f) of section 380-j of the general business law, as added by chapter 867 of the laws of 1977, are amended to read as follows:

2 (vii) information relating to past confinement in a mental institution
3 where the date of last confinement antedates the report by more than 4 seven years; [~~or~~]

5 (viii) late payments of any cashless tolls; or

6 (ix) any other adverse information which antedates the report by more
7 than seven years.

8 § 2. Section 352 of the banking law is amended by adding a new ninth
9 undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

10 No licensee shall collect, evaluate, report or maintain in the file on 11 a borrower the borrower's late payment of cashless tolls as a factor to 12 determine the borrower's credit worthiness, credit standing or credit
13 capacity. The superintendent shall ensure that the credit scoring 14 formulas filed with the department do not contain variables which 15 account for late payment of cashless tolls as part of that formula by 16 asking the licensee to certify to that fact.

17 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.
