AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to adding arts and music education into the curriculum for public school students

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature hereby finds that arts and music education exposure has developmental benefits to children and adolescents, and is an essential component to providing a well-rounded education to all of the state of New York's public school students. Past studies have shown that arts and music education has a significant positive impact on all students, including traditionally underserved students. It is the legislature's intent to ensure that arts and music education shall be incorporated into the public school curriculum.

§ 2. Subparagraphs 1 and 2 of paragraph a of subdivision 3 of section 3204 of the education law, subparagraph 1 as amended by chapter 14 of the laws of 1958 and subparagraph 2 as amended by chapter 124 of the laws of 1951, are amended to read as follows:

(1) The course of study for the first eight years of full time public day schools shall provide for instruction in at least the [~~twelve~~] thirteen common school branches of arithmetic, reading, spelling, writing, the English language, geography, United States history, civics, hygiene, arts and music, physical training, the history of New York state and science.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD00469-01-3

(2) The courses of study and of specialized training beyond the first eight years of full time public day schools shall provide for instruction in at least the English language and its use, in civics, hygiene, physical training, arts and music, and American history including the principles of government proclaimed in the Declaration of Independence and established by the constitution of the United States.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
