AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to findings of the state board of parole necessary for discretionary release of incarcerated individuals on parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows: (A) [Discretionary release] Release on parole shall [not] be granted [merely as a reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties 5 6 while confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probabili-7 ty that, if such incarcerated individual is released, he or she will live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and that his or her release is not incompatible with the welfare of society and will not 9 so deprecate the seriousness of his or her crime as to undermine respect 10 11 for law to any incarcerated individual appearing before the board who 12 is eligible for release on parole, unless the parole case record demon-13 strates there is a current and unreasonable risk the individual will 14 violate the law if released and such risk cannot be mitigated by parole 15 supervision. In making the [parole release decision] determination as 16 to whether an individual poses a current and unreasonable risk of 17 violating the law if released, the procedures adopted pursuant to subdisentencing. Such information may include, but need not be limited to, the threatening or intimidating conduct of any other person who or which is directed by the person sentenced. Any statement by a victim or the victim's representative made to the board shall be maintained by the department in the file provided to the board when interviewing the incarcerated individual in consideration of release. A victim or 7 victim's representative who has submitted a written request to the department for the transcript of such interview shall be provided such 9 transcript as soon as it becomes available.

§ 2. The state board of parole shall report quarterly in writing to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the minority leader of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the assembly, and to the chairpersons of the assembly committee correction and the senate committee on crime victims, crime and correction on denials of parole. Written reports shall include the 16 number of individuals denied parole release each month, the articulated reasons for each denial, the assigned commissioners in each case and a record of their votes, and demographic information on each applicant denied including race, sex, facility, and crime of conviction. Reports shall exclude information that would identify the individual. Reports required by this section shall be made available to the public and posted quarterly on the websites maintained by the state board of parole.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
