§ 702. Certificates of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration issued by courts. 1. Any court of this state ~~[may, in its discretion,]~~ shall, absent a finding that issuance of such certificate will jeopardize public safety, issue a certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration at the time of sentencing to an eligible offender for a conviction that occurred in such court, if the court ~~[either (a) imposed a revocable sentence or (b)]~~ imposed a sentence other than one executed by commitment to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and community supervision. Such certificate ~~[may be]~~ issued ~~[(i)]~~ at the time sentence is pronounced~~[, in which case it]~~ may grant relief from forfeitures, as well as from disabilities~~[, or (ii) at any time thereafter, in which case it shall apply only to disabilities]~~. Where such court either imposes a revocable sentence or imposes a sentence other than one executed by commitment to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and community supervision, the court, upon application and in accordance with subdivision two of this section, shall initially determine the fitness of an eligible offender for such certificate prior to or at the time sentence is pronounced. Where the court finds that issuance of the certificate at sentencing will jeopardize public safety, such certificate shall be issued as follows:

(a) for an offender who receives a revocable sentence, such offender shall be issued such certificate after serving one year of such revocable sentence imposed by the court provided that such offender has not been convicted of a new crime during that time and is not the subject of an undisposed arrest. Such certificate shall apply only to disabilities. In order to receive such a certificate, the eligible offender must apply to the court in which they were sentenced.

(b) for an offender who receives a definite sentence of imprisonment, such offender shall be issued such certificate one year after release from incarceration provided that such offender has not been convicted of a new crime during that time and is not the subject of an undisposed arrest. Such certificate shall apply only to disabilities. In order to receive such a certificate, the eligible offender must apply to the court in which they were sentenced.

In calculating the one-year periods under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, any period of time during which the person was incarcerated for any reason between the time of conviction and the date on which the eligible offender becomes eligible for a certificate shall be excluded and such one-year period shall be extended by a period or periods equal to the time served under such incarceration.

2. ~~[Such]~~ The relief granted by such certificate shall ~~[not be issued by the court unless the court is satisfied that]~~

~~(a) The person to whom it is to be granted is an eligible offender, as defined in section seven hundred;~~

~~(b) The relief to be granted by the certificate is]~~ be consistent with the rehabilitation of the eligible offender~~[,]~~ and

~~[(c) The relief to be granted by the certificate is]~~ be consistent with the public interest.

3. ~~[Where a certificate of relief from disabilities is not issued at the time sentence is pronounced it shall only be issued thereafter upon verified application to the court. The court may, for the purpose of determining whether such certificate shall be issued, request its probation service to conduct an investigation of the applicant, or if the court has no probation service it may request the probation service of the county court for the county in which the court is located to conduct such investigation. Any probation officer requested to make an investigation pursuant to this section shall prepare and submit to the court a written report in accordance with such request.]~~

~~4.]~~ Where the court has imposed a revocable sentence and the certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration is issued prior to the expiration or termination of the time which the court may revoke such sentence, the certificate shall be deemed to be a temporary certificate until such time as the court's authority to revoke the sentence has expired or is terminated. While temporary, such certificate (a) may be revoked by the court for violation of the conditions of the sentence, and (b) shall be revoked by the court if it revokes the sentence and commits the person to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and community supervision. Any such revocation shall be upon notice and after an opportunity to be heard. If the certificate is not so revoked, it shall become a permanent certificate

1 upon expiration or termination of the court's authority to revoke the 2 sentence.

3 [5] 4. Any court that has issued a certificate of [~~relief from disa-~~
4 ~~bilities~~] restoration may at any time issue a new certificate to enlarge
5 the relief previously granted, provided, however, that the provisions of 6 subdivisions one through [~~four~~] three of this section shall apply to the 7 issuance of any such new certificate.

8 [~~6-~~] 5. Any written report submitted to the court [~~pursuant to~~] for 9 the purposes of this section is confidential and may not be made avail-
10 able to any person or public or private agency except where specifically 11 required or permitted by statute or upon specific authorization of the 12 court. However, upon the court's receipt of such report, the court shall 13 provide a copy of such report, or direct that such report be provided to 14 the applicant's attorney, or the applicant himself, if he or she has no
15 attorney. In its discretion, the court may except from disclosure a part 16 or parts of the report which are not relevant to the granting of a
17 certificate, or sources of information which have been obtained on a 18 promise of confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of 19 which would not be in the interest of justice. The action of the court
20 excepting information from disclosure shall be subject to appellate

23 or to comment upon any portions of the report. The court may also 24 conduct a summary hearing at the conference on any matter relevant to 25 the granting of the application and may take testimony under oath.

44 the issuance of such certificate would jeopardize public safety. If such 45 certificate is not issued upon such eligible offender's release to

47 the board of parole after two years of unrevoked parole, conditional

55 such incarceration;

(b) any eligible offender who resides within this state and whose judgment of conviction was rendered by a court in any other jurisdiction where such eligible offender applies for such certificate, is not incarcerated at the time of the application and is not subject to an undisposed arrest, unless the board of parole determines that the issuance of such certificate would jeopardize public safety. Any certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration issued by the department to an eligible offender who at time of the issuance of the certificate is under the department's supervision, shall be deemed to be a temporary certificate until such time as the eligible offender is discharged from the department's supervision, and, while temporary, such certificate may be revoked by the department for violation of the conditions of community supervision. Revocation shall be upon notice to the releasee, who shall be accorded an opportunity to explain the violation prior to decision thereon. If the certificate is not so revoked, it shall become a permanent certificate upon expiration or termination of the department's jurisdiction over the individual.
