2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 17, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. AUBRY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the civil service law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the hiring of certain police officers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 58 of the civil service law is amended by adding a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

7. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special or local law to the contrary, no person shall be eligible for appointment as a police officer where such person was previously employed as a police officer and where such person: (i) was dismissed for malfeasance or other serious misconduct calling into question such person's fitness to serve as a police officer; or (ii) resigned or retired from such officer's position while under investigation for such malfeasance or other serious misconduct.

(b) Any law enforcement agency that has knowledge that any former police officer of such agency who: (i) was dismissed for malfeasance or other serious misconduct; or (ii) resigned or retired from such officer's position while under investigation for such malfeasance or other serious misconduct; and is an applicant for the position of police officer with any other law enforcement agency, shall inform such other agency of such dismissal, resignation or retirement.

(c) The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to any police officer who is exonerated of each allegation against such officer of such malfeasance or other serious misconduct.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) "malfeasance" means the commonly approved usage of "malfeasance";

(ii) "serious misconduct" means improper or illegal actions taken by a police officer in connection with such officer's official duties that
