26 to adversely affect the health or safety of a dog, including but not 27 limited to, rain, sleet, ice, snow, wind, or extreme heat and cold.

28 (j) "Dogs that are left outdoors" shall mean dogs that are outdoors in 29 inclement weather without ready access to, or the ability to enter, a 30 house, apartment building, office building, or any other permanent 31 structure that complies with the standards established under paragraph 32 (ii) of subdivision (b) of section 280.20 of this article.

33 (k) "Fur-bearing animal" shall include arctic fox, red fox, silver 34 fox, chinchilla, mink, pine marten, muskrat, and those fur-bearing 35 animals included within the provisions of section 11-1907 of the envi-36 ronmental conservation law.

37 (l) "Cage and box dryer" shall mean a product that is attached to or 38 near a cage or box for the purpose of drying or aiding in the drying of 39 a companion animal contained in a cage or box, which is capable of func-40 tioning without a person manually holding a dryer.

41 (m) "Companion animal grooming facility" shall mean an establishment 42 where a companion animal may be bathed, brushed, clipped or styled for a 43 fee.

44 (n) "Tattoo" shall mean a mark on the body made with indelible ink or 45 pigments injected beneath the outer layer of the skin.

46 (o) "Baby rabbit" shall mean a rabbit of less than two months of age.

47 § 280.05 Facilitating animal fighting in the first degree.

48 A person is guilty of facilitating animal fighting in the first degree 49 when he or she:

50 (a) for amusement or gain, causes any animal to engage in animal 51 fighting; or

52 (b) trains any animal under circumstances evincing an intent that such 53 animal engage in animal fighting for amusement or gain; or

54 (c) breeds, sells or offers for sale any animal under circumstances 55 evincing an intent that such animal engage in animal fighting; or

(d) permits any act described in subdivision (a), (b) or (c) of this section to occur on premises under his or her control; or

(e) owns, possesses or keeps any animal trained to engage in animal fighting on premises where an exhibition of animal fighting is being conducted under circumstances evincing an intent that such animal engage in animal fighting.

Facilitating animal fighting in the first degree is a class D felony.

§ 280.06 Facilitating animal fighting in the second degree.

A person is guilty of facilitating animal fighting in the second degree when he or she:

(a) owns, possesses or keeps any animal under circumstances evincing an intent that such animal engage in animal fighting;

(b) paid an admission fee or made a wager at any place where an exhibition of animal fighting is being conducted;

(c) knowingly participates as a spectator at any place where an exhibition of animal fighting is being conducted and has been previously found guilty of such offense or for violating subdivision (b) of this section in the previous five years; or

(d) intentionally owns, possesses, sells, transfers or manufactures animal fighting paraphernalia with the intent to engage in or otherwise promote or facilitate animal fighting and has been previously found guilty of such offense in the previous five years.

Facilitating animal fighting in the second degree is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 280.07 Facilitating animal fighting in the third degree.

A person is guilty of facilitating animal fighting in the third degree when he or she:

(a) knowingly participates as a spectator at any place where an exhibition of animal fighting is being conducted; or

(b) intentionally owns, possesses, sells, transfers or manufactures animal fighting paraphernalia, as defined in subdivision (g) of section 280.00 of this article, with the intent to engage in or otherwise promote or facilitate animal fighting.

Facilitating animal fighting in the third degree is a class B misdemeanor.

§ 280.10 Overdriving, torturing or injuring animals; failure to provide proper sustenance.

(a) A person is guilty of overdriving, torturing, injuring or failing to provide proper sustenance to an animal if he or she:

(i) overdrives, overloads, tortures, beats or unjustifiably injures, maims, mutilates or kills any animal, whether wild or tame, and whether belonging to such person or to another;

(ii) deprives any animal of necessary food or drink by neglecting or refusing to furnish an animal with such food or drink;

(iii) causes, procures or permits any animal to be overdriven, overloaded, tortured, beaten, or unjustifiably injured, maimed, mutilated or killed;

(iv) causes, procures or permits any animal to be deprived of necessary food or drink; or

(v) wilfully instigates, engages in, or in any way furthers any act of cruelty to any animal, or any act tending to produce such cruelty.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit or interfere with any properly conducted scientific tests, experiments or investigations, involving the use of living animals, performed or conducted in laboratories or institutions, which are approved for these purposes by the commissioner of health. The commissioner of health shall

1 prescribe the rules under which such approvals shall be granted, includ-2 ing therein standards regarding the care and treatment of any such 3 animals. Such rules shall be published and copies thereof conspicuously 4 posted in each such laboratory or institution. The commissioner of 5 health or his or her duly authorized representative shall have the power 6 to inspect such laboratories or institutions to insure compliance with 7 such rules and standards. Each such approval may be revoked at any time 8 for failure to comply with such rules and in any case the approval shall 9 be limited to a period not exceeding one year.

10 Overdriving, torturing or injuring animals or failing to provide 11 sustenance to an animal is a class A misdemeanor.

12 § 280.15 Aggravated cruelty to animals.

13 (a) A person is guilty of aggravated cruelty to animals when he or 14 she, with no justifiable purpose, intentionally kills or intentionally 15 causes serious physical injury to a companion animal with aggravated 16 cruelty. For purposes of this section, "aggravated cruelty" shall mean 17 conduct which:

18 (i) is intended to cause extreme physical pain; or

19 (ii) is done or carried out in an especially depraved or sadistic 20 manner.

21 (b) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit 22 or interfere in any way with anyone lawfully engaged in hunting, trap-23 ping, or fishing, as provided in article eleven of the environmental 24 conservation law; the dispatch of rabid or diseased animals, as provided 25 in article twenty-one of the public health law; the dispatch of animals 26 posing a threat to human safety or other animals, where such action is 27 otherwise legally authorized; or any properly conducted scientific 28 tests, experiments, or investigations involving the use of living 29 animals, performed or conducted in laboratories or institutions approved 30 for such purposes by the commissioner of health pursuant to subdivision 31 (b) of section 280.10 of this article.

32 Aggravated cruelty to animals is a class D felony.

33 § 280.20 Failure to provide appropriate shelter for a dog left outdoors.

34 (a) A person is guilty of failing to provide appropriate shelter for a 35 dog left outdoors, as defined in subdivision (j) of section 280.00 of 36 this article, when he or she knowingly fails to provide appropriate 37 shelter specific to the breed and physical condition of such dog and the 38 climate outdoors.

39 (b) For purposes of this section, minimum standards for determining 40 whether shelter is appropriate to the breed and physical condition, as 41 defined in subdivision (h) of section 280.00 of this article, of such 42 dog and the climate outdoors shall include:

43 (i) for dogs that are restrained in any manner outdoors, shade by 44 natural or artificial means to protect such dog from direct sunlight at 45 all times when exposure to sunlight is likely to threaten the health of 46 such dog;

47 (ii) for all dogs left outdoors in inclement weather, a housing facil-
48 ity, which must: (1) have a waterproof roof; (2) be structurally sound 49 with insulation appropriate to local climatic conditions and sufficient 50 to protect such dog from inclement weather; (3) be constructed to allow 51 each dog adequate freedom of movement to make normal postural adjust-52 ments, including the ability to stand up, turn around and lie down with 53 its limbs outstretched; and (4) allow for effective removal of excre-54 tions, other waste material including but not limited to, dirt and 55 trash. Such housing facility and the area immediately surrounding it

1 shall be regularly cleaned to maintain a healthy and sanitary environ-2 ment and to minimize health hazards.

3 (c) Inadequate shelter may be indicated by the appearance of the hous-4 ing facility itself, including but not limited to, size, structural 5 soundness, evidence of crowding within such housing facility, healthful 6 environment in the area immediately surrounding such facility, or by the 7 appearance or physical condition of the dog.

8 (d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any 9 protections afforded to dogs or other animals under any other provisions 10 of this article.

11 (e) Nothing in this section shall prevent the seizure of a dog for a 12 violation of this section pursuant to the authority granted under this 13 article. Upon a finding of any violation of this section, any dog or 14 dogs seized pursuant to the provisions of this article that have not 15 been voluntarily surrendered by the owner or custodian or forfeited 16 pursuant to court order shall be returned to the owner or custodian only 17 upon proof that appropriate shelter as required by this section is being 18 provided.

19 (f) Beginning seventy-two hours after a charge of violating this 20 section, each day that a defendant fails to correct the deficiencies in 21 the dog shelter for a dog that he or she owns or that is in his or her 22 custody or control and that is left outdoors, so as to bring such shel-23 ter into compliance with the provisions of this section, shall consti-24 tute a separate offense.

25 Failure to provide appropriate shelter for dogs left outdoors is a 26 violation punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more 27 than one hundred dollars for a first offense, and a fine of not less 28 than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars for a 29 second and subsequent offenses. The court may, in its discretion, reduce 30 the amount of any fine imposed for a violation of this section by the 31 amount which the defendant proves he or she has spent providing a dog 32 shelter or repairing an existing dog shelter to comply with the require-33 ments of this section.

34 § 280.25 Electrocution of fur-bearing animals.

35 A person is guilty of electrocution of fur-bearing animals when he or 36 she, notwithstanding any other provision of law, intentionally kills or 37 stuns a fur-bearing animal by means of an electrical current.

38 Electrocution of fur-bearing animals is a class A misdemeanor.

39 § 280.30 Confinement of a companion animal in a vehicle; extreme temper-40 atures.

41 (a) A person is guilty of confinement of a companion animal in a vehi-42 cle in extreme temperatures when he or she confines a companion animal 43 in a motor vehicle in extreme heat or cold without proper ventilation or 44 other protection from such extreme temperatures where such confinement 45 places such companion animal in imminent danger of death or serious 46 physical injury due to exposure to such extreme heat or cold.

47 (b) If the operator of such vehicle cannot be promptly located, a 48 police officer, peace officer, or peace officer acting as an agent of a 49 duly incorporated humane society may take necessary steps to remove the 50 animal or animals from such vehicle.

51 (i) Police officers, peace officers or peace officers acting as agents 52 of a duly incorporated humane society removing an animal or animals from 53 a vehicle pursuant to this section shall place a written notice on or in 54 the vehicle, bearing the name of the officer or agent, and the depart-55 ment or agency and address where the animal or animals will be taken.

1 (ii) An animal or animals removed from a vehicle pursuant to this 2 section shall, after receipt of any necessary emergency veterinary 3 treatment, be delivered to the duly incorporated humane society or soci-4 ety for the prevention of cruelty to animals, or designated agent there-5 of, in the jurisdiction where the animal or animals were seized.

6 (iii) Officers shall not be held criminally or civilly liable for 7 actions taken reasonably and in good faith in carrying out the 8 provisions of this section.

9 (c) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to affect any 10 other protections afforded to companion animals under any other 11 provisions of this article.

12 Confinement of a companion animal in a vehicle in extreme temperatures 13 is a violation punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor 14 more than one hundred dollars for a first offense, and a fine of not 15 less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars 16 for a second and subsequent offenses.

17 § 280.35 Participation in a prohibited practice at a companion animal 18 grooming facility.

19 (a) A person is guilty of participating in a prohibited practice at a 20 companion animal grooming facility, as defined in subdivision (m) of 21 section 280.00 of this article, when he or she uses a cage or box dryer, 22 as defined in subdivision (l) of section 280.00 of this section, which 23 contains a heating element with the heating element turned on for the 24 purpose of drying or aiding in the drying of a companion animal.

25 (b) Nothing contained in this section shall limit or abrogate any 26 claim or cause of action any person may have under common law or by 27 statute. The provisions of this section shall be in addition to any such 28 common law and statutory remedies.

29 Participation in a prohibited practice at a companion animal grooming 30 facility is a violation punishable by a civil penalty of not less than 31 two hundred fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each 32 violation.

33 § 280.40 Piercing and tattooing of a companion animal.

34 A person is guilty of piercing or tattooing of a companion animal when 35 he or she:

36 (a) pierces or causes to have pierced a companion animal, unless such 37 piercing provides a medical benefit to the companion animal whereas such 38 piercing shall be performed by a licensed veterinarian or under the 39 supervision of a licensed veterinarian; or

40 (b) tattoos or causes to have tattooed a companion animal, unless such 41 tattoo, as defined in subdivision (n) of section 280.00 of this article:

42 (i) is done in conjunction with a medical procedure performed by a 43 licensed veterinarian or under the supervision of a licensed veterinari-44 an for the benefit of the companion animal and to indicate that such 45 medical procedure has been done, provided that such tattoo is not for 46 design purposes; or

47 (ii) is done for the purpose of identification of the companion animal 48 and not for design purposes, and such tattoo includes only such numbers 49 and/or letters allotted by a corporation that, in the regular course of 50 its business, maintains an animal tattoo identification registry.

51 Piercing and tattooing of a companion animal is a violation.

52 § 280.45 Unlawful sale of baby chicks and baby rabbits.

53 (a) A person is guilty of unlawful sale of baby chicks or baby rabbits 54 when he or she:

55 (i) sells, offers for sale, barter or gives away living baby chicks, 56 ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits, as defined in subdivision (o)

1 of section 280.00 of this article, unless such person provides proper 2 brooder facilities appropriate for the care of such baby chicks, duck-3 lings or other fowl or baby rabbits during the time they are in the 4 possession of such person;

5 (ii) sells, offers for sale, barter or displays living baby chicks, 6 ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits which have been dyed, colored or 7 otherwise treated so as to impart to them an artificial color; or

8 (iii) sells, offers for sale, barter or gives away living baby 9 chicks, ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits under two months of age 10 in any quantity less than six.

11 (b) Nothing under this section shall be interpreted or applied to 12 prevent or restrict teachers and qualified instructors of youth under 13 the guidance and supervision of the New York state cooperative extension 14 service from using eggs for non-profit educational purposes or from 15 observing fowl hatched from such eggs for non-profit educational 16 purposes.

17 Unlawful sale of baby chicks and baby rabbits is a class A misdemea-18 nor.

19 § 280.50 Abandonment of an animal.

20 A person is guilty of abandonment of an animal when he or she, being 21 the owner or possessor, or having charge or custody of an animal, aban-22 dons such animal, or leaves it to die in a street, road or public place, 23 or who allows such animal, if it becomes disabled, to lie in a public 24 street, road or public place more than three hours after he or she 25 receives notice that it is left disabled.

26 Abandonment of an animal is a class A misdemeanor.

27 § 280.55 Failure to provide proper food and drink to impounded animals.

28 (a) A person is guilty of failure provide proper food and drink to 29 impounded animals when he or she, having impounded or confined any 30 animal, refuses or neglects to supply to such animal during its confine-31 ment a sufficient supply of good and wholesome air, food, shelter and 32 water.

33 (b) If any animal shall be impounded pursuant to subdivision (a) of 34 this section, and shall continue to be without necessary food and water 35 for more than twelve successive hours, it shall be lawful for any 36 person, from time to time, and as often as it shall be necessary, to 37 enter into and upon such impound and supply such animal with necessary 38 food and water, so long as it shall remain so confined; such person 39 shall not be liable to any action for such entry, and the reasonable 40 cost of such food and water may be collected by such person from the 41 owner of such animal, and such animal shall not be exempt from levy and 42 sale upon execution issued upon a judgment therefor.

43 Failure to provide proper food and drink to impounded animals is a 44 class A misdemeanor.

45 § 280.60 Carrying an animal in a cruel manner.

46 A person is guilty of carrying an animal in a cruel manner when:

47 (a) he or she carries or causes to be carried in or upon any vessel or 48 vehicle or otherwise, any animal in a cruel or inhumane manner, or so as 49 to produce torture; or

50 (b) a railway corporation, or an owner, agent, consignee, or person in 51 charge of any horses, sheep, cattle, or swine, in the course of, or for 52 transportation, who confines, or causes or suffers the same to be 53 confined, in cars for a longer period than twenty-eight consecutive 54 hours, or thirty-six consecutive hours where consent is given in the 55 manner hereinafter provided, without unloading for rest, water and feeding, during five consecutive hours, unless prevented by storm or inevitable accident.

(i) The consent which will extend the period from twenty-eight to thirty-six hours shall be given by the owner, or by the person in custody of a particular shipment, by writing separate and apart from any printed bill of lading or other railroad form.

(ii) In estimating such confinement, the time during which the animals have been confined without rest, on connecting roads from which they are received, must be computed.

Carrying an animal in a cruel manner is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 280.65 Poisoning or attempting to poison animals in the first degree.

A person is guilty of poisoning or attempting to poison animals in the first degree when he or she:

(a) unjustifiably administers any poisonous or noxious drug or substance to a horse, mule or domestic cattle; or

(b) unjustifiably exposes any such drug or substance with intent that the same shall be taken by a horse, mule or by domestic cattle, whether such horse, mule or domestic cattle is the property of such person or another.

(a) A person is guilty of clipping or cutting the ears of a dog when he or she clips or cuts off or causes or procures another to clip or cut off the whole or any part of an ear of any dog unless an anaesthetic shall have been given to the dog and the operation is performed by a licensed veterinarian.

(b) Each applicant for a dog license must state on such application whether any ear of the dog for which he or she applies for such license has been cut off wholly or in part.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing any dog whose ear or ears have been clipped or cut off wholly or in part, not in violation of this section, from being imported into the state exclusively for breeding purposes.

Clipping or cutting the ears of a dog is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 280.95 Stealing a companion animal.

A person is guilty of stealing a companion animal when he or she:

(a) removes or causes to be removed the collar, identification tag or any other identification by which the owner may be ascertained from any dog, cat or any other companion animal, as defined in subdivision (e) of section 280.00 of this article;

(b) entices any identified dog, cat or other such companion animal into or out of any house or enclosure for the purpose of removing its collar, tag or any other identification, except with the owner's permission;

(c) entices, seizes or molests any companion animal, while it is being held or led by any person or while it is properly muzzled or wearing a collar with an identification tag attached, except where such action is incidental to the enforcement of some law or regulation; or

(d) transports any companion animal, not lawfully in his or her possession, for the purpose of killing or selling such companion animal.

Stealing a companion animal is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 280.100 Removing, seizing or transporting a dog for research purposes.

A person is guilty of removing, seizing or transporting a dog for research purposes when he or she removes, seizes or transports or causes to remove, seize or transport any dog which belongs to or is licensed to another for the purpose of sale, barter or to give away said dog to a laboratory, hospital, research institute, medical school or any agency or organization engaged in research activity, without the express written permission of the owner or licensee.

Removing, seizing or transporting a dog for research purposes is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 280.105 Unlawfully operating upon the tails of horses.

(a) A person is guilty of unlawfully operating upon the tails of horses when he or she:

1 (i) cuts the bone, tissues, muscles or tendons of the tail of any 2 horse, mare or gelding, or otherwise operates upon it in any manner for 3 the purpose or with the effect of docking, setting, or otherwise alter-4 ing the natural carriage of the tail, or who knowingly permits the same 5 to be done upon premises of which he or she is the owner, lessee, 6 proprietor or user, or who assists in or is voluntarily present at such 7 cutting; or

8 (ii) shows or exhibits at any horse show or other like exhibition in 9 this state a horse, mare or gelding, the tail of which has been cut or 10 operated upon pursuant to this subdivision.

11 (1) Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply with 12 respect to an animal the tail of which has been so cut or operated upon, 13 if the owner thereof furnishes to the manager or other official having 14 charge of the horse show or exhibition at which such animal is shown or 15 exhibited, an affidavit by the owner, or a licensed veterinarian, in a 16 form approved by the department of agriculture and markets, stating that 17 the tail of such horse was so cut in a state wherein such cutting was 18 not then specifically prohibited by the laws thereof.

19 (2) Such affidavit shall, to the best of the affiant's knowledge, 20 information and belief, identify the animal with respect to sex, age, 21 markings, sire and dam, and state the time and place of such cutting and 22 the name and address of the person by whom it was performed.

23 (3) The affidavit shall be subject to inspection at all reasonable 24 times by any peace officer, acting pursuant to his or her special 25 duties, or police officer of this state, or by a designated represen-26 tative of the commissioner of agriculture and markets.

27 (4) In lieu of furnishing such affidavit to the manager or other offi-28 cial having charge of such horse show or exhibition, the owner of such 29 horse may specify on the entry blank for the horse show or exhibition 30 the name and address of a central registry office designated by the 31 department of agriculture and markets where such an affidavit has 32 already been filed and is available for inspection.

33 (b) If a horse is found with the bone, tissues, muscles or tendons of 34 its tail cut as described in subdivision (a) of this section, and with 35 the wound resulting therefrom unhealed, upon the premises or in the 36 charge and custody of any person, such fact shall be prima facie 37 evidence of a violation of this section by the owner or user of such 38 premises or the person having such charge or custody, respectively.

39 Unlawfully operating upon the tails of horses is a class A misdemea-40 nor.

41 § 280.110 Evidentiary and impoundment procedures by members of law 42 enforcement.

43 Matters relating to the seizure, adoption, care, disposition and 44 destruction of animals by members of law enforcement and members of a 45 duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals 46 charged to enforce this article, ancillary to such enforcement of this 47 article, shall be governed by article twenty-six of the agriculture and 48 markets law and article six hundred ninety of the criminal procedure 49 law.

50 § 280.115 Disposition of animals through forfeiture procedures after 51 conviction.

52 (a) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, upon conviction 53 for any violation of section 280.05, 280.06, 280.07, 280.10, 280.15, 54 280.20, 280.50, 280.55, 280.60, 280.65, 280.66, 280.75, or 280.105 of 55 this article, the convicted person may, after a duly held hearing pursu-56 ant to subdivision (f) of this section, be ordered by the court to 1 forfeit, to a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to 2 animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents ther-3 eof, the animal or animals which are the basis of such conviction. Upon 4 such an order of forfeiture, the convicted person shall be deemed to 5 have relinquished all rights to the animals which are the basis of such 6 conviction, except those granted in subdivision (d) of this section.

7 (b) No animal in the custody of a duly incorporated society for the 8 prevention of cruelty to animals, a duly incorporated humane society, 9 duly incorporated animal protective association, pound or its authorized 10 agents thereof, shall be sold, transferred or otherwise made available 11 to any person for the purpose of research, experimentation or testing.
12 No authorized agent of a duly incorporated society for the prevention of 13 cruelty to animals, nor of a duly incorporated humane society, duly 14 incorporated animal protective association or pound shall use any animal 15 placed in its custody by the duly incorporated society for the 16 prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society for 17 the purpose of research, experimentation or testing.

18 (c) The court may additionally order that the convicted person or any 19 person dwelling in the same household who conspired, aided or abetted in 20 the unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or who knew or 21 should have known of the unlawful act, shall not own, harbor, or have 22 custody or control of any other animals, other than farm animals, for a 23 period of time which the court deems reasonable.

24 (d) In the case of farm animals, the court may, in addition to the 25 forfeiture to a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty 26 to animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents 27 thereof, and subject to the restrictions of section 280.45 of this arti-
28 cle and section three hundred fifty-seven of the agriculture and markets 29 law, order the farm animals which were the basis of such conviction to 30 be sold. In no case shall farm animals which are the basis of the 31 conviction be redeemed by the convicted person who is the subject of the 32 order of forfeiture or by any person dwelling in the same household who 33 conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis of 34 such conviction, or who knew or should have known of the unlawful act.
35 The court shall reimburse the convicted person and any duly determined 36 interested persons, pursuant to subdivision (f) of this section, any 37 money earned by the sale of the farm animals less any costs including, 38 but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care, and any fines or 39 penalties imposed by the court. The court may order that the subject 40 animals be provided with appropriate care and treatment pending the 41 hearing and the disposition of the charges. Any farm animal ordered 42 forfeited but not sold shall be remanded to the custody and charge of a 43 duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or 44 duly incorporated humane society or its authorized agent thereof and 45 disposed of pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section.

46 (e) A duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to 47 animals or a duly incorporated humane society in charge of animals 48 forfeited pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section may, in its 49 discretion, lawfully and without liability, adopt them to individuals 50 other than the convicted person or person dwelling in the same household 51 who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis 52 of such conviction, or who knew or should have known of the unlawful 53 act, or humanely euthanize them according to the provisions of section 54 three hundred seventy-four of the agriculture and markets law.

55 (f) (i) Prior to an order of forfeiture of farm animals, a hearing 56 shall be held within thirty days of conviction, to determine the pecuni-

1 ary interests of any other person in the farm animals which were the 2 basis of the conviction. Written notice shall be served at least five 3 days prior to the hearing upon all interested persons. In addition, 4 notice shall be made by publication in a local newspaper at least seven 5 days prior to the hearing. For the purposes of this subdivision, inter-6 ested persons shall mean any individual, partnership, firm, joint stock 7 company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity 8 who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in such farm 9 animals.

10 (ii) All interested persons shall be provided an opportunity at the 11 hearing to redeem their interest as determined by the court in such farm 12 animals and to purchase the interest of the convicted person. The 13 convicted person shall be entitled to be reimbursed his or her interest 14 in the farm animals, less any costs, fines or penalties imposed by the 15 court, as specified under subdivision (d) of this section. In no case 16 shall the court award custody or control of the animals to any inter-17 ested person who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which 18 was the basis of such conviction, or who knew or should have known of 19 such unlawful act.

20 (g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in 21 any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any 22 farm animal described in this section. This section expressly does not 23 impair or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a secu-24 rity interest in farm animals or in the proceeds from the sale of such 25 farm animals.

26 § 280.120 Officer may take possession of animals or implements used in 27 fight among animals.

28 Any officer authorized by law to make arrests may lawfully take 29 possession of any animals, or implements, or other property used or 30 employed, or about to be used or employed, in the violation of any 31 provision of law relating to fights among animals. He or she shall state 32 to the person in charge thereof, at the time of such taking, his or her 33 name and residence, and also, the time and place at which the applica-34 tion provided for by section 280.125 of this article will be made.

35 § 280.125 Disposition of animals or implements used in fights among 36 animals.

37 An officer, after taking possession of such animals, or implements, or 38 other property, pursuant to section 280.120 of this article, shall apply 39 to the magistrate before which the complaint was made against the offen-40 der violating such provision of law, for the order described herein, and 41 shall make and file an affidavit with such magistrate, stating therein 42 the name of the offender charged in such complaint, the time, place and 43 description of the animals, implements or other property so taken, 44 together with the name of the party who claims the same, if known, and 45 that the affiant has reason to believe and does believe, stating the 46 grounds of such belief, that the same were used or employed, or were 47 about to be used or employed, in such violation, and will establish the 48 truth thereof upon the trial of such offender. He or she shall then 49 deliver such animals, implements, or other property, to such magistrate, 50 who shall thereupon, by order in writing, place the same in the custody 51 of an officer or other proper person named and designated in such order, 52 to be kept until the trial or final discharge of the offender, and shall 53 send a copy of such order, without delay, to the district attorney of 54 the county. The officer or person named and designated in such order, 55 shall immediately thereupon assume such custody, and shall retain such 56 for the purpose of evidence upon such trial, subject to the order of the court before which such offender may be required to appear, until his or her final discharge or conviction. Upon the conviction of such offender, the animals, implements, or other property, shall be adjudged by the court to be forfeited. In the event of the acquittal or final discharge, without conviction, of such offender, such court shall, on demand, direct the delivery of the property held in custody to the owner thereof.

§ 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 24 of section 108 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 392 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:

(a) "Dangerous dog" means any dog which (i) without justification attacks a person, companion animal as defined in subdivision ~~[five]~~ (e) of section ~~[three hundred fifty of this chapter]~~ 280.00 of the penal law, farm animal as defined in subdivision ~~[four]~~ (d) of section ~~[three hundred fifty of this chapter]~~ 280.00 of the penal law or domestic animal as defined in subdivision seven of this section and causes physical injury or death, or (ii) behaves in a manner which a reasonable person would believe poses a serious and unjustified imminent threat of serious physical injury or death to one or more persons, companion animals, farm animals or domestic animals or (iii) without justification attacks a service dog, guide dog or hearing dog and causes physical injury or death.

§ 5. Subdivision 1 and paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 123 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by section 18 of part T of chapter 59 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as follows:

1. Any person who witnesses an attack or threatened attack, or in the case of a minor, an adult acting on behalf of such minor, may make a complaint of an attack or threatened attack upon a person, companion animal as defined in subdivision (e) of section [three hundred fifty of this chapter] 280.00 of the penal law, farm animal as defined in [such] subdivision (d) of section [three hundred fifty] 280.00 of the penal law, or a domestic animal as defined in subdivision seven of section one hundred eight of this article to a dog control officer or police officer of the appropriate municipality. Such officer shall immediately inform the complainant of his or her right to commence a proceeding as provided in subdivision two of this section and, if there is reason to believe the dog is a dangerous dog, the officer shall forthwith commence such proceeding himself or herself.

(b) secure, humane confinement of the dog for a period of time and in a manner deemed appropriate by the court but in all instances in a manner designed to: (1) prevent escape of the dog, (2) protect the public from unauthorized contact with the dog, and (3) to protect the dog from the elements pursuant to section ~~[three hundred fifty-three b of this chapter]~~ 280.00 of the penal law. Such confinement shall not include lengthy periods of tying or chaining;

§ 6. Section 332 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 449 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 332. Disposition. Any person having in his or her care, custody, or control any abandoned animal, as defined in section three hundred thirty-one of this article, may deliver such animal to any duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or any duly incorporated humane society having facilities for the care and eventual disposition of such animals, or, in the case of dogs, cats and other small animals, to any pound maintained by or under contract or agreement with any county, city, town, or village within which such animal was abandoned. The person with whom the animal was abandoned shall, however, on

1 the day of divesting himself or herself of possession thereof, notify 2 the person who had placed such animal in his or her custody of the name 3 and address of the animal society or pound to which the animal has been 4 delivered, such notice to be by registered letter mailed to the last 5 known address of the person intended to be so notified. If an animal is 6 not claimed by its owner within five days after being so delivered to 7 such duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, 8 duly incorporated humane society or pound, such animal may at any time 9 thereafter be placed for adoption in a suitable home [~~or euthanized in~~ 10 ~~accordance with the provisions of section three hundred seventy-four of~~ 11 ~~this chapter~~]. In no event, however, shall the use of a decompression 12 chamber or decompression device of any kind be used for the purpose of 13 destroying or disposing of such animal.

14 § 7. Paragraph a of subdivision 6 of section 373 of the agriculture 15 and markets law, as amended by chapter 289 of the laws of 2018, is 16 amended to read as follows:

17 a. If any animal is seized and impounded pursuant to the provisions of 18 this section, section [~~three hundred fifty-three d of this article~~] 19 280.30 of the penal law or section three hundred seventy-five of this 20 article for any violation of this article, upon arraignment of charges, 21 or within a reasonable time thereafter, the duly incorporated society 22 for the prevention of cruelty to animals, humane society, pound, animal 23 shelter or any authorized agents thereof, hereinafter referred to for 24 the purposes of this section as the "impounding organization", may file 25 a petition with the court in which criminal charges have been filed 26 requesting that the person from whom an animal is seized or the owner of 27 the animal be ordered to post a security. The district attorney prose-28 cuting the charges may file and obtain the requested relief on behalf of 29 the impounding organization if requested to do so by the impounding 30 organization. The security shall be in an amount sufficient to secure 31 payment for all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the 32 impounding organization in caring and providing for the animal pending 33 disposition of the charges. Reasonable expenses shall include, but not 34 be limited to, estimated medical care and boarding of the animal for at 35 least thirty days. The amount of the security, if any, shall be deter-36 mined by the court after taking into consideration all of the facts and 37 circumstances of the case including, but not limited to the recommenda-38 tion of the impounding organization having custody and care of the 39 seized animal and the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has 40 been posted in accordance with this section, the impounding organization 41 may draw from the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by 42 such organization in caring for the seized animal.

43 § 8. Subdivision 6 of section 399-aa of the general business law, as 44 added by chapter 573 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

45 6. (a) No provision of this section shall be construed to prohibit or 46 interfere with any properly conducted scientific tests, experiments or 47 investigations involving the use of dog or cat fur or flesh, performed 48 or conducted in laboratories or institutions, which are approved for 49 these purposes by the state commissioner of health in accordance with 50 section [~~three hundred fifty-three of the agriculture and markets~~] 51 280.10 of the penal law.

52 (b) No provision of this section shall be construed to prohibit any 53 person, firm, partnership or corporation from importing, selling, offer-54 ing for sale, manufacturing, distributing, transporting, or otherwise 55 marketing or trading in the fur, hair, skin, or flesh of a domesticated 56 dog or cat for the purposes of conducting scientific tests, experiments

1 or investigations that are to be performed or conducted in laboratories 2 or institutions, which are approved for these purposes by the state 3 commissioner of health in accordance with section [~~three hundred fifty-~~ 4 ~~three of the agriculture and markets~~] 280.10 of the penal law.

5 § 9. Subdivision 1 of section 352.3 of the family court act, as 6 amended by chapter 261 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as 7 follows:

8 (1) Upon the issuance of an order pursuant to section 315.3 or the 9 entry of an order of disposition pursuant to section 352.2, a court may 10 enter an order of protection against any respondent for good cause 11 shown. The order may require that the respondent: (a) stay away from the 12 home, school, business or place of employment of the victims of the 13 alleged offense; or (b) refrain from harassing, intimidating, threaten-14 ing or otherwise interfering with the victim or victims of the alleged 15 offense and such members of the family or household of such victim or 16 victims as shall be specifically named by the court in such order; or 17 (c) refrain from intentionally injuring or killing, without justifica-18 tion, any companion animal the respondent knows to be owned, possessed, 19 leased, kept or held by the person protected by the order or a minor 20 child residing in such person's household; or (d) refrain from remotely 21 controlling any connected devices affecting the home, vehicle or proper-22 ty of the person protected by the order. "Companion animal", as used in 23 this subdivision, shall have the same meaning as in subdivision [~~five~~] 24 [~~(e)~~] of section [~~three hundred fifty of the agriculture and markets~~]
25 280.00 of the penal law. "Connected device", as used in this subdivi-26 sion, shall mean any device, or other physical object that is capable of 27 connecting to the internet, directly or indirectly, and that is assigned 28 an internet protocol address or bluetooth address.
