health or safety, which has existed for five days, or any combination of 1 such conditions in any apartments in the subject building, a landlord 2 may commence a proceeding under this subdivision by filing, with the 3 petition and notice of petition prescribed by section seven hundred 4 5 thirty-one of this article, an affidavit including facts establishing 6 that said violation or violations were recorded erroneously or that a 7 state, city or local agency, authority or department erroneously failed to remove said violation or violations. A proceeding under this subdivi-8 9 sion cannot be maintained if the court finds that the allegations in 10 said affidavit are untrue or if the court finds that at the time of commencement of the proceeding there were violations of any applicable 11 state, city or local codes relating to housing maintenance or housing 12 standards or contraventions of section two hundred thirty-five-b of the 13 14 real property law, in the subject apartment or in the common areas of 15 the subject building, or extremely hazardous violations in any apart-16 ments in the subject building. Any person succeeding to the landlord's 17 interest in the premises may proceed under this subdivision for rent due 18 his predecessor in interest if he has a right thereto. Where a tenant dies during the term of the lease and rent due has not been paid and the 19 apartment is occupied by a person with a claim to possession, a proceed-20 21 ing may be commenced naming the occupants of the apartment seeking a 22 possessory judgment only as against the estate. Entry of such a judgment 23 shall be without prejudice to the possessory claims of the occupants, and any warrant issued shall not be effective as against the occupants. 24 25 § 2. Section 741 of the real property actions and proceedings law is 26 amended by adding a new subdivision 3-a to read as follows: 27 3-a. State that at the time of commencement of the proceeding there 28 are no violations of any applicable state, city or local codes relating 29 to housing maintenance or housing standards, and no conditions that contravene section two hundred thirty-five-b of the real property law, 30 31 in the subject apartment or in the common areas of the subject building, 32 and no extremely hazardous violations in any apartments in the subject 33 building, or state that an affidavit has been filed as prescribed by 34 section seven hundred eleven of this article. 35 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
