AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to restoring the legislative checks and balances to any emergency declaration that exceeds forty-five days and ensures judicial due proceeds rights for any action that impairs fundamental constitutional rights

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 29-a of the executive law, as added by chapter 640

4 § 29-a. Suspension of other laws. 1. a. Subject to the state constitu-5 tion, the federal constitution and federal statutes and regulations, the 6 governor may by executive order temporarily suspend specific provisions 7 of any statute, local law, ordinance, or orders, rules or regulations, 8 or parts thereof, of any agency during a state disaster emergency, if 9 compliance with such provisions would prevent, hinder, or delay action
10 necessary to cope with the disaster.

11 b. Every order directing the temporary suspension of any statute, 12 local law, ordinance, or order, rule or regulation, shall specify the 13 individual county or counties to be affected by such order and shall 14 provide a detailed explanation and rationale that states with particu-
15 larity the facts, circumstances, demographics, and conditions of each 16 such county that justifies the issuance of such an order related to such 17 county.

18 2. Suspensions pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall be 19 subject to the following standards and limits:

20 a. no suspension shall be made for a period in excess of thirty days,

1 exceed [~~thirty~~] fifteen days [~~each~~]. At the end of such period, all 2 suspensions shall terminate and be of no further force or effect unless 3 the legislature, by concurrent resolution, authorizes an extension by 4 the governor for a specified county or counties, for a period not to 5 exceed an additional thirty days; provided that the legislature may 6 authorize multiple extensions if it deems necessary;

7 b. no suspension shall be made which does not safeguard the health and 8 welfare of the public and which is not reasonably necessary to the 9 disaster effort;

10 c. any such suspension order shall specify the statute, local law, 11 ordinance, order, rule or regulation or part thereof to be suspended and 12 the terms and conditions of the suspension;

13 d. the order may provide for such suspension only under particular 14 circumstances, and may provide for the alteration or modification of the 15 requirements of such statute, local law, ordinance, order, rule or regu-
16 lation suspended, and may include other terms and conditions;

17 e. any such suspension order shall provide for the minimum deviation
18 from the requirements of the statute, local law, ordinance, order, rule 19 or regulation suspended consistent with the disaster action deemed 20 necessary; and

21 f. when practicable, specialists shall be assigned to assist with the 22 related emergency actions to avoid needless adverse effects resulting 23 from such suspension.

24 3. Such suspensions shall be effective from the time and in the manner
25 prescribed in such orders and shall be published as soon as practicable
26 in the state bulletin.

27 4. The legislature may terminate by concurrent resolution executive 28 orders issued under this section at any time.

29 5. a. Any chief executive of a county except a county wholly contained 30 within a city, or the mayor of any city with more than a million resi-
31 dents, may upon fifteen days notice request the governor to terminate 32 any declaration of a state disaster emergency or any related executive 33 order affecting such political subdivision.

34 b. If the governor denies such request, the governor shall within such 35 fifteen day period provide to the chief executive officer of the county 36 or mayor a detailed written explanation and rationale that states with 37 particularity the circumstances, demographics, and conditions of such 38 county or city that justifies the continuance of such an order related 39 to such political subdivision. If the governor fails to respond within 40 such fifteen-day period, the state disaster emergency and all related 41 executive orders shall cease and be of no further force or effect as 42 applied to the requesting county or city.

43 c. If the governor denies a request to terminate any declaration of a 44 state disaster emergency or any related executive order, the chief exec-45 utive officer of the county or the mayor may seek a judicial review of 46 the governor's decision pursuant to a special proceeding commenced in 47 supreme court in the affected county or city. The governor shall have 48 the burden to establish, with clear and convincing evidence, within five 49 days after service on the governor and attorney general of the petition
50 seeking judicial review, the need for a continuation of such state 51 disaster emergency and any related executive orders for such county or 52 city and that such executive orders are narrowly tailored to meet the 53 disaster emergency and comply with the restrictions and limitations
54 contained in this chapter, including, amongst other things, involving 55 the minimum deviation from any provision that was suspended and avoiding 56 needless adverse effects. The supreme court shall render a decision

1 within fifteen days after service on the governor and attorney general
2 of the petition seeking judicial review.

3 6. Every executive order that impairs the right to freely practice
4 religion or worship, to peaceably assemble, to free speech, to free
5 press, or to liberty or property; impairs equal treatment under the law;
6 impairs the validity of an existing contract; or otherwise impairs any 7 right granted by the New York state constitution or the United States
8 Constitution shall, within the executive order itself, provide for a 9 process by which a person or entity may seek review of the applicability
10 and constitutionality thereof. Such review shall include, at a minimum, 11 the right to a prompt impartial administrative hearing and decision and 12 the right to appeal the final determination of such hearing to the 13 supreme court in the county in which such person or entity is located.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 15 have become a law.
