

STATE OF NEW YORK

2003

2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 23, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. FALL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring employers to engage in a good faith cooperative dialogue with employees who request accommodation due to a religious practice or observance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 10 of section 296 of the executive law, as 2 amended by chapter 166 of the laws of 2000, paragraph (a) as amended by 3 chapter 154 of the laws of 2019, and paragraph (b) as amended and para-4 graphs (c) and (d) as added by chapter 539 of the laws of 2002, is 5 amended to read as follows:

6 10. (a) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any 7 employer, or an employee or agent thereof, to impose upon a person as a 8 condition of obtaining or retaining employment, including opportunities 9 for promotion, advancement or transfers, any terms or conditions that 10 would require such person to violate or forego a sincerely held practice 11 of his or her religion, including but not limited to the observance of 12 any particular day or days or any portion thereof as a sabbath or other 13 holy day or religious holiday in accordance with the requirements of his 14 or her religion or the wearing of any attire, clothing, or facial hair 15 in accordance with the requirements of his or her religion, unless, 16 after engaging in a bona fide effort which shall include a cooperative 17 dialogue, the employer demonstrates that it is unable to reasonably 18 accommodate the employee's or prospective employee's sincerely held 19 religious observance or practice without undue hardship on the conduct
20 of the employer's business. Notwithstanding any other provision of law 21 to the contrary, an employee shall not be entitled to premium wages or 22 premium benefits for work performed during hours to which such premium 23 wages or premium benefits would ordinarily be applicable, if the employ-24 ee is working during such hours only as an accommodation to his or her

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD06626-01-3

1 sincerely held religious requirements. Nothing in this paragraph or 2 paragraph (b) of this subdivision shall alter or abridge the rights 3 granted to an employee concerning the payment of wages or privileges of 4 seniority accruing to that employee.

5 (b) Except where it would cause an employer to incur an undue hard-
6 ship, no person shall be required to be present or remain at his or her 7 place of employment during any day or days or portion thereof that, as a 8 requirement of his or her religion, he or she observes as his or her 9 sabbath or other holy day or religious holiday, including a reasonable 10 time prior and subsequent thereto for travel between his or her place of 11 employment and his or her home, provided however, that any such absence 12 from work shall, wherever practicable [~~in the reasonable judgment of~~] 13 and as agreed upon between the employer and the employee pursuant to a 14 cooperative dialogue, be made up by an equivalent amount of time and 15 work at some other mutually convenient time, or shall be charged against 16 any leave with pay ordinarily granted, other than sick leave, provided 17 further, however, that any such absence not so made up or charged, may 18 be treated by the employer of such person as leave taken without pay.

19 (c) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer to 20 refuse to permit an employee to utilize leave or to refuse to engage in 21 a cooperative dialogue requested by an employee, as provided in para-22 graph (b) of this subdivision, solely because the leave will be used for 23 absence from work to accommodate the employee's sincerely held religious 24 observance or practice.

25 (d) As used in this subdivision: (1) "undue hardship" shall mean an 26 accommodation requiring significant expense or difficulty (including a 27 significant interference with the safe or efficient operation of the 28 workplace or a violation of a bona fide seniority system). Factors to be 29 considered in determining whether the accommodation constitutes an undue 30 economic hardship shall include, but not be limited to:

31 (i) the identifiable cost of the accommodation, including the costs of 32 loss of productivity and of retaining or hiring employees or trans-
33 ferring employees from one facility to another, in relation to the size 34 and operating cost of the employer;

35 (ii) the number of individuals who will need the particular accommo-36 dation to a sincerely held religious observance or practice; and

37 (iii) for an employer with multiple facilities, the degree to which 38 the geographic separateness or administrative or fiscal relationship of 39 the facilities will make the accommodation more difficult or expensive.

40 Provided, however, an accommodation shall be considered to constitute 41 an undue hardship if it will result in the inability of an employee to 42 perform the essential functions of the position in which he or she is 43 employed.

44 (2) "premium wages" shall include overtime pay and compensatory time 45 off, and additional remuneration for night, weekend or holiday work, or 46 for standby or irregular duty.

47 (3) "premium benefit" shall mean an employment benefit, such as 48 seniority, group life insurance, health insurance, disability insurance, 49 sick leave, annual leave, or an educational or pension benefit that is 50 greater than the employment benefit due the employee for an equivalent 51 period of work performed during the regular work schedule of the employ-52 ee.

53 (4) "cooperative dialogue" shall mean the process by which an employer 54 and employee engage in good faith written or oral dialogue concerning 55 such employee's needs for accommodation regarding his or her observance 56 of a sincerely held practice of his or her religion, potential accommo-

1 dations that may address such employee's accommodation needs, and the 2 difficulties that such potential accommodations may pose for such 3 employer.

4 In the case of any employer other than the state, any of its political 5 subdivisions or any school district, this subdivision shall not apply 6 where the uniform application of terms and conditions of attendance to 7 employees is essential to prevent undue economic hardship to the employ-8 er. In any proceeding in which the applicability of this subdivision is 9 in issue, the burden of proof shall be upon the employer. If any ques-10 tion shall arise whether a particular position or class of positions is 11 excepted from this subdivision by this paragraph, such question may be 12 referred in writing by any party claimed to be aggrieved, in the case of 13 any position of employment by the state or any of its political subdivi-14 sions, except by any school district, to the civil service commission, 15 in the case of any position of employment by any school district, to the 16 commissioner of education, who shall determine such question and in the 17 case of any other employer, a party claiming to be aggrieved may file a 18 complaint with the division pursuant to this article. Any such determi-19 nation by the civil service commission shall be reviewable in the manner 20 provided by article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules 21 and any such determination by the commissioner of education shall be 22 reviewable in the manner and to the same extent as other determinations 23 of the commissioner under section three hundred ten of the education 24 law.

25 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.