Introduced by M. of A. STIRPE, SAYEGH, SANTABARBARA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Banks

AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to requiring transmitters of money to provide a certain warning to consumers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. The banking law is amended by adding a new section 652-c to 2 read as follows:
- 3 § 652-c. Required warning. 1. A person engaged in the business of 4 receiving money for transmission or transmitting money by wire or elec-5 tronic transfer which, at the request of an individual who in-person, by 6 telephone or electronic means transmits funds to another person, busi-7 ness or entity, shall:
- 8 (a) provide a clear, concise, and conspicuous consumer fraud warning 9 prior to initiating the money transfer transaction and on all funds transfer forms used by consumers to send money to an individual; 10
- 11 (b) provide annual consumer fraud prevention training for agents 12 involved with funds transfers;
- 13 (c) monitor agent activity relating to consumer funds transfers; and

- (d) establish a toll-free number for consumers to call to report fraud 15 or suspected fraud and provide information on how to stop a transfer.
- 2. The warning required by this section shall not apply to an elec-16 tronic funds transfer in which funds are not transferred directly to 17 18 another person and are not available for immediate use.
- 19 3. A violation of the provisions of this section shall be punishable 20 by a civil penalty of not more than two hundred fifty dollars for the 21 first violation and five hundred dollars for each subsequent violation.
- 22 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 23 it shall have become a law.
