13 421-a Standard Rider Fact Sheet

14 Any dwelling unit within an eligible site that receives tax benefits 15 under section 421-a of the New York State Real Property Tax Law will 16 remain rent stabilized for a period of time depending on a variety of 17 factors, including the location of the unit, the commencement of 18 construction and the affordability in the project. Failure to provide 19 the initial standardized rider may result in the unit remaining rent 20 stabilized for the duration of the tenancy. Specific details related to 21 your unit are listed on the next sheet. While your unit receives 421-a 22 tax benefits, it will be subject to rent stabilization. New York State's 23 rent regulation laws provide tenants in rent-stabilized apartments with 24 a variety of legal rights and protections. The owner of your building 25 must provide you with a rent-stabilized lease when you first move in and 26 also each time you renew your lease for your choice of either a one or 27 two year term, for as long as your apartment remains stabilized.

28 You are entitled to continuous lease renewals while your apartment is 29 rent stabilized. When you renew your lease, your rent may only be 30 increased by an amount determined by New York State's rent regulation
31 laws, which may be found by visiting (enter web address), and permitted 32 by applicable tax benefit laws.

33 Rent increases for rent-stabilized tenants are determined by the New 34 York City Rent Guidelines Board, and generally, may only increase by a 35 specified amount within a one-year or two-year lease term. For more 36 information, please visit (enter web address) or call (enter number).
37 Rent-stabilized tenants are also entitled to assistance by the New York
38 State Homes and Community Renewal by visiting (enter web address) or 39 calling (enter number).

40 421-a Rider - Unit Number

41 As a rent-regulated tenant, your rights are, in part, determined by 42 421-a of the New York State Real Property Tax Law. For more information,
43 you may contact New York State Housing and Community Renewal by calling
44 (enter number) or visiting (enter web address) or the New York City
45 Department of Housing Preservation and Development by calling (enter 46 number) or visiting (enter web address).

47 The first rent as of (date of initial lease commencement) for (unit 48 apartment number) is (amount).

49 Because (unit number) receives a 421-a tax abatement, it will be rent
50 regulated until at least MM/DD/YYYY.

51 Construction commenced on your building, located at (address) on 52 MM/DD/YYYY.

53 Construction was completed on MM/DD/YYYY.

54 On (MM/DD/YYYY specific to tenant), your landlord can begin to increase 55 the rent for unit number by 2.2% each year.

1 The 421-a benefits for (unit number) expire on (MM/DD/YYYY). After the 2 expiration of the 421-a tax abatement, your unit will (either remain 3 rent-stabilized for the duration of your tenancy or continue to be 4 protected due to additional programs outlined below).

5 (Unit number) also receives (list any other city, state, federal 6 affordability program) and (the impact that has on the unit's continuing 7 affordability, the date on which those benefits expire and the impact of 8 the expiration of those benefits on the unit).

9 If you believe that any of the information contained in this rider is 10 incorrect, contact New York State Homes and Community Renewal by calling
11 (enter number) or visiting (enter web address) or the New York City
12 Department of Housing Preservation and Development by calling (enter

14 § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 15 have become a law and shall apply to all leases entered into, renewed or 16 extended on and after such effective date. Effective immediately the 17 addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary 18 for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized 19 to be made and completed on or before such date.
