AN ACT to amend the executive law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to statements to the state board of parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

(A) Discretionary release on parole shall not be granted merely as a reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties while confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probability 7 that, if such incarcerated individual is released, he or she will live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and that his or her release is not incompatible with the welfare of society and will not so 10 deprecate the seriousness of his or her crime as to undermine respect for law. In making the parole release decision, the procedures adopted 11 12 pursuant to subdivision four of section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this 13 article shall require that the following be considered: (i) the institutional record including program goals and accomplishments, academic 15 achievements, vocational education, training or work assignments, therapy and interactions with staff and incarcerated individuals; (ii) 16 performance, if any, as a participant in a temporary release program; 17 18 (iii) release plans including community resources, employment, education 19 and training and support services available to the incarcerated individ-20 ual; (iv) any deportation order issued by the federal government against 21 the incarcerated individual while in the custody of the department and any recommendation regarding deportation made by the commissioner of the 23 department pursuant to section one hundred forty-seven of the correction law; (v) any current or prior statement made to the board by the crime victim or the victim's representative, where the crime victim is deceased or is mentally or physically incapacitated; (vi) any statement in support or opposition made to the board by a third party; (vii) the 5 length of the determinate sentence to which the incarcerated individual would be subject had he or she received a sentence pursuant to section 7 70.70 or section 70.71 of the penal law for a felony defined in article two hundred twenty or article two hundred twenty-one of the penal law; 9 [(vii)] (viii) the seriousness of the offense with due consideration to 10 the type of sentence, length of sentence and recommendations of the 11 sentencing court, the district attorney, the attorney for the incarcer-12 ated individual, the pre-sentence probation report as well as consider-13 ation of any mitigating and aggravating factors, and activities follow-14 ing arrest prior to confinement; and [(viii)] (ix) prior criminal 15 record, including the nature and pattern of offenses, adjustment to any 16 previous probation or parole supervision and institutional confinement. 17 The board shall provide toll free telephone access for crime victims. In 18 the case of an oral statement made in accordance with subdivision one of 19 section 440.50 of the criminal procedure law, the parole board member shall present a written report of the statement to the parole board. A 20 21 crime victim's representative shall mean the crime victim's closest 22 surviving relative, the committee or quardian of such person, or the 23 legal representative of any such person. Such statement submitted by the victim or victim's representative may include information concerning threatening or intimidating conduct toward the victim, the victim's 24 25 26 representative, or the victim's family, made by the person sentenced and 27 occurring after the sentencing. Such information may include, but need 28 not be limited to, the threatening or intimidating conduct of any other person who or which is directed by the person sentenced. Any statement 29 30 by a victim or the victim's representative made to the board shall be 31 maintained by the department in the file provided to the board when 32 interviewing the incarcerated individual in consideration of release. A 33 victim or victim's representative who has submitted a written request to 34 the department for the transcript of such interview shall be provided 35 such transcript as soon as it becomes available. 36

- § 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:
- (B) Where a crime victim or victim's representative as defined in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, [or other person] submits to the parole board a written statement concerning the release of an incarcerated individual, such statement shall be deemed confidential and shall only be made available to the parole board [shall keep that individual's name and address confidential] for use in rendering parole decisions.
- § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 440.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. Upon the request of a victim of a crime, or in any event in all cases in which the final disposition includes a conviction of a violent felony offense as defined in section 70.02 of the penal law, a felony defined in article one hundred twenty-five of such law, or a felony defined in article one hundred thirty of such law, the district attorney shall, within sixty days of the final disposition of the case, inform the victim by letter of such final disposition. If such final disposition results in the commitment of the defendant to the custody of the department of corrections and community supervision for an indeterminate
