

STATE OF NEW YORK

2562

2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 26, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. ROZIC, SEAWRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to establishing an essential workers' bill of rights

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 202-n to read as follows:

§ 202-n. Essential workers' bill of rights. 1. For the purposes of this section, "essential worker" means any employee of a business or entity providing essential services or functions during any state disaster emergency declared pursuant to article two-B of the executive law and designated as an essential worker pursuant to any law, rule, regulation or executive order including but not limited to essential health care operations including research and laboratory services; essential infrastructure including utilities, telecommunication, airports and transportation infrastructure; essential manufacturing, including food processing and pharmaceuticals; essential retail including grocery stores and pharmacies; essential services including trash collection, mail, and shipping services; news media; banks and related financial institutions; providers of basic necessities to economically disadvantaged populations; construction; vendors of essential services necessary to maintain the safety, sanitation and essential operations of residences or other essential businesses; vendors that provide essential services or products, including logistics and technology support, child care and services needed to ensure the continuing operation of government agencies and provide for the health, safety and welfare of the public.

2. During a state disaster emergency, all employers of essential workers shall adopt and implement the following essential workers' bill of rights which shall be distributed to essential workers, made available

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02962-01-3

1 on each employer's website, and shall include links or information to 2 file a report and seek a response from such employer or the state
3 regarding any unsafe work environment or failure to meet the require-4 ments of this section:

5 (a) all employers shall provide essential workers with adequate
6 personal protective equipment and products at no cost to such workers,
7 including but not limited to hand sanitizer, medical or surgical masks,
8 medical or surgical gloves, disposable gowns and any other equipment or 9 product identified in emergency regulations promulgated by the commis-
10 sioner, in consultation with the commissioner of health;

11 (b) all employers shall inform essential workers when an employee has 12 contracted a disease related to such state disaster emergency and of a 13 worker's potential exposure to disease; and

14 (c) no employer shall retaliate or discriminate against an essential 15 worker for reporting any unsafe work environment.

16 3. (a) For the purposes of this subdivision:

17 (i) "employer" means a formula retail store, large employer, transpor-
18 tation business, or franchisee or subcontractor, and includes any indi-
19 vidual, partnership, association, corporation, limited liability compa-20 ny, business trust, legal representative, or any organized group of 21 persons acting as such an employer;

22 (ii) "formula retail store" means any employer that operates a retail 23 sales or restaurant establishment either directly or through franchisees
24 and that, along with eleven or more other retail sales or restaurant
25 establishments located in the United States, maintains two or more of 26 the following features: (A) a standardized array of merchandise, a 27 standardized facade, a standardized decor and color scheme, a uniform
28 apparel, standardized signage, a trademark; or (B) a servicemark;

29 (iii) "large employer" means any employer that has annual gross reven-
30 ue of fifty million dollars or more, but shall not include (A) an 31 employer whose principal industry is manufacturing; or (B) a not-for-32 profit organization. An employer shall be deemed to have annual gross 33 revenue of fifty million dollars or more if it had revenue at or exceed-34 ing that level in any of the past three fiscal or calendar years;

35 (iv) "manufacturing" means the process of working raw materials into 36 products suitable for use or which gives new shapes, new quality or new 37 combinations to matter which has already gone through some artificial 38 process by the use of machinery, tools, appliances, or other similar 39 equipment;

40 (v) "not-for-profit organization" means an entity exempt from taxation
41 under section 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code;

42 (vi) "transportation business" means any industry, business, or estab-
43 lishment operated for the purpose of conveying persons or property from 44 one place to another whether by rail, highway, air, or water, and all 45 operations and services in connection therewith; and

46 (vii) "franchisee or subcontractor" means any employer that operates 47 under a franchise agreement with a formula retail store or large employ-48 er, or that provides services, including but not limited to janitorial, 49 maintenance, security, staffing, passenger services, food services, or 50 temporary services to a formula retail store, large employer, or trans-51 portation business.

52 (b) An employer meeting the requirements of this subdivision shall 53 also include in its essential workers' bill of rights:

54 (i) hazard payments for its essential workers. An employer of essen-55 tial workers shall make such hazard payments at the direction of the 56 commissioner. Such payment shall be a percentage or a fixed dollar

1 amount, as prescribed by the commissioner, provided, however, no hazard
2 payment shall exceed twenty-five thousand dollars in any year for any 3 essential worker earning less than two hundred thousand dollars per year
4 or five thousand dollars for any essential worker earning more than two 5 hundred thousand dollars. Such payments shall be in addition to and 6 shall not be part of an essential worker's basic annual salary, and 7 shall not affect or impair any performance advancement payments, 8 performance awards, longevity payments or other rights or benefits to 9 which an essential worker may be entitled. A hazard payment shall be 10 terminated upon the cessation of the state disaster emergency; and 11 (ii) payment of the costs of any child care or health care needed by 12 such essential workers for the duration of the state disaster emergency.

13 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.