Introduced by M. of A. HYNDMAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to creating a vending to food pantries and soup kitchens tax credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 28 to read as follows:

28. Vending to food pantry and soup kitchen tax credit. (a) Taxpayers who operate farms in the state of New York and sell fruits and vegetables grown in New York to food pantries and soup kitchens may claim the vending to food pantry and soup kitchen tax credit against the tax imposed by this article at the close of the tax year provided, however, that the unused portion of any tax credit claimed shall not be carried forward and applied to another tax year.

(b) The amount of the credit shall be fifty percent of the revenue earned by the farmer from the sale of fruits and vegetables grown in New York to food pantries and soup kitchens.

(c) Taxpayers claiming the vending to food pantry and soup kitchen tax credit shall submit copies of the sales receipts with tax returns that claim a tax credit.

§ 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (bbb) to read as follows:

(bbb) Vending to food pantry and soup kitchen tax credit. (1) A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this article for revenue earned by vending fruits and vegetables grown in New York to food pantries and soup kitchens, to be computed as provided in paragraph two of this subsection.

(2) The amount of credit shall be fifty percent of the revenue earned by the farmer from the sale of fruits and vegetables grown in New York to food pantries and soup kitchens. In no event shall the credit
