A person who is found quilty of a domestic violence offense pursuant to this article, and the specified offense occurs in the presence of a child aged fifteen years or less, shall be quilty of a class E felony.

Any sentence imposed pursuant to a conviction under this section is to be served consecutive to any sentence imposed for the underlying offense.

§ 2. Subdivision 2 of section 70.25 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 56 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

A. 2634 3

2. When more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed on a person 2 for two or more offenses committed through a single act or omission, or through an act or omission which in itself constituted one of the offenses and also was a material element of the other, the sentences, except if one or more of such sentences is for a violation of section 270.20 of this chapter, must run concurrently. Provided, however, that if one or more of such sentences is for a conviction under article two hundred sixty-one of this chapter, the sentence may run consecutively.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 10 have become a law.
