Introduced by M. of A. HEVESI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to increasing the state reimbursement rate for preventative child protective services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 153-k of the 2 social services law, as added by section 15 of part C of chapter 83 of 3 the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

4 (a) Expenditures made by social services districts for child protec-
5 tive services, preventive services provided, as applicable, to eligible 6 children and families of children who are in and out of foster care
7 placement, independent living services, aftercare services, and adoption 8 administration and services other than adoption subsidies provided 9 pursuant to article six of this chapter and the regulations of the 10 department of family assistance shall, if approved by the office of 11 children and family services, be subject to [~~sixty-five~~] seventy-five 12 percent state reimbursement exclusive of any federal funds made avail-
13 able for such purposes, in accordance with the directives of the depart-14 ment of family assistance and subject to the approval of the director of 15 the budget.

16 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 17 the amendments to paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 153-k of the 18 social services law made by section one of this act shall not affect the 19 repeal of such section and shall be deemed repealed therewith.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.
