AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to residency requirements for police officers in a city with a population of one million or more

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 3 of the public officers law, as 2 amended by chapter 1004 of the laws of 1966, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 2. [~~Neither~~] In a city with a population less than one million, 5 neither the provisions of this section or of any general, special or 6 local law, charter, code, ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation, 7 requiring a person to be a resident of the political subdivision or 8 municipal corporation of the state for which he or she shall be chosen 9 or within which his or her official functions are required to be exer-10 cised, shall apply to the appointment of a person as a member of the 11 police force of any political subdivision or municipal corporation of 12 the state if such person resides (a) in the county in which such poli-
13 tical subdivision or municipal corporation is located; or (b) in a coun-14 ty within the state contiguous to the county in which such political 15 subdivision or municipal corporation is located; or (c) in a county 16 within the state contiguous to such political subdivision or municipal 17 corporation; or (d) in a county within the state contiguous to a county
18 described in item (c) hereof where the former is less than fifteen miles 19 from such political subdivision or municipal corporation, measured from 20 their respective nearest boundary lines; or (e) in a county within the 21 state contiguous to a county described in item (d) hereof where the 22 former is less than thirty miles from such political subdivision or

1 municipal corporation, measured from their respective nearest boundary
2 lines.

3 § 2. Subdivision 19 of section 3 of the public officers law, as added
4 by chapter 509 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

5 19. Any person who resides in this state and who is currently employed
6 as [~~a member of the police force,~~] a paid member of the uniformed force 7 of a paid fire department or department of corrections in the correc-
8 tional service classification of the classified civil service, of a city 9 of over one million population, shall be exempt from the provisions of 10 subdivisions one, two and nine of this section upon compliance with the 11 procedure set forth in this subdivision. Any person seeking to benefit 12 from the exemption created by this subdivision shall notify his respec-13 tive employer in writing of said intention within thirty days from the 14 effective date of this subdivision and shall specify his or her then 15 current residence address. The exemption created by this subdivision 16 shall be applicable only to said actual designated residence and not to 17 any residence that any subject currently employed member may thereafter 18 establish; provided, however, that any such currently employed member 19 who resides outside this state shall have one year from the effective 20 date of this subdivision within which to establish residence as required
21 pursuant to subdivisions one, two and nine of this section and comply 22 with the notice requirements of this subdivision. Said residence shall 23 constitute a lawful residence for all purposes notwithstanding any 24 provision to the contrary of any general, special or local law, charter, 25 code, ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation.

26 § 3. Section 3 of the public officers law is amended by adding a new 27 subdivision 19-a to read as follows:

28 19-a. In a city with a population of one million or more, any person 29 appointed as a paid member of the police force of such city shall become 30 a resident of any political subdivision or municipal corporation within 31 such city within one year of his or her appointment and shall continue 32 to reside within any such political subdivision or municipal corpo-
33 ration. No person appointed as a paid member of such police force may 34 continue such employment unless he or she complies with the provisions 35 of this subdivision.

36 § 4. Paragraph 1 of subdivision 4 of section 30 of the public officers
37 law, as amended by chapter 173 of the laws of 1962, is amended to read 38 as follows:

39 (1) If such person was appointed as a member of such police force
40 prior to [~~July first, nineteen hundred sixty-one~~] January first, two 41 thousand twenty-four, shall reside in any such county on such date and 42 shall continue to reside in any such county after such date, or 43 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
