2 by chapter 61 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

3 (a) In addition to the tax imposed by section fourteen hundred two of 4 this article, a tax is hereby imposed on each conveyance of residential 5 real property or interest therein when the consideration for the entire 6 conveyance is one million dollars (adjusted for inflation) or more. For 8 premises that is or may be used in whole or in part as a personal resi-

13 same time and in the same manner as the tax imposed by section fourteen 14 hundred two of this article. For purposes of this section, the one 15 million dollar amount shall be adjusted for inflation in each calendar 16 year by multiplying the amount by the ratio of (i) the average monthly 17 value of the consumer price index for the twelve month period ending on 18 June thirtieth of the immediately preceding calendar year divided by 19 (ii) the average monthly value of the consumer price index for the 20 twelve month period ending on June thirtieth of the year in which this 21 subdivision became a law, and rounding the amount to the nearest thou-
22 sand dollars. For purposes of this section, the consumer price index 23 means the consumer price index (for all urban consumers, U.S. city aver-24 age, all items, not seasonally adjusted) as published by the United
