- 1. For purposes of this section, "electronic monitoring equipment" means an instrument or device utilized as a condition of a securing order pursuant to article five hundred ten or five hundred thirty of the criminal procedure law, or in accordance with subdivision four of section 65.10 of this chapter.
- 2. A person is quilty of tampering with electronic monitoring equip-10 ment when, having no right to do so nor any reasonable grounds to believe that he or she has such right, he or she tampers with electronic monitoring equipment, or damages or otherwise alters such electronic monitoring equipment in an effort to interfere with any signal, impulse or data being transmitted by such electronic monitoring equipment.

15 Tampering with electronic monitoring equipment is a class E felony.

- § 2. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 2 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:
- 20 (t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifi-21 able person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on 24 his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that 5 the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes 7 of this [subparagraph] paragraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes 9 this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall 10 include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, 11 based upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, 12 if the court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal 13 14 shall be released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate 15 non-monetary conditions; [ex]

(u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law[$_{\mathbf{r}}$]; or

(v) tampering with electronic monitoring equipment as defined in section 145.75 of the penal law.

§ 3. Subparagraphs (xx) and (xxi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, subparagraph (xx) as amended and subparagraph (xxi) as added by section 4 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new subparagraph (xxii) is added to read as follows:

(xx) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-monetary conditions; [ex]

(xxi) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law[+]; or

- § 4. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 4 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:
