Introduced by M. of A. PRETLOW -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to school districts being notified when a teacher is dismissed from a school district due to sexual improprieties

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 115 to read as follows:

§ 115. Notification to school districts of a teacher's dismissal due to sexual impropriety. When a teacher has been dismissed from a school district due to a sexual impropriety and such sexual impropriety has been proven in a court of law, such information shall be placed on the teacher's permanent record and the former school district shall reveal the reasons for such dismissal to all school districts throughout the state which inquire into such teacher's dismissal.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of July next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
