(f) specifically authorized by statute or federal rule or regulation; or

(g) to the bureau of the census for purposes of planning or carrying out a census or survey or related activity pursuant to the provisions of Title XIII of the United States Code; or

(h) to a person who has provided the agency with advance written assurance that the record will be used solely for the purpose of statistical research or reporting, but only if it is to be transferred in a form that does not reveal the identity of any data subject; or

(i) pursuant to a showing of compelling circumstances affecting the health or safety of a data subject, if upon such disclosure notification is transmitted to the data subject at [~~his or her~~] their last known address; or

(j) to the state archives as a record which has sufficient historical or other value to warrant its continued preservation by the state or for evaluation by the state archivist or [~~his or her~~] their designee to determine whether the record has such value; or

(k) to any person pursuant to a court ordered subpoena or other compulsory legal process; or

(l) [~~for inclusion in a public safety agency record or to any governmental unit or component thereof which performs as one of its principal functions any activity pertaining to the enforcement of criminal laws, provided that, such record is reasonably described and is requested solely for a law enforcement function; or~~

~~(m)~~] pursuant to a search warrant; or

[~~(n)~~] (m) to officers or employees of another agency if the record sought to be disclosed is necessary for the receiving agency to comply with the mandate of an executive order, but only if such records are to be used only for statistical research, evaluation or reporting and are not used in making any determination about a data subject; or

[~~(o)~~] (n) to officers or employees of a public retirement system of the city of New York if the information sought to be disclosed is necessary for the receiving public retirement system to process benefits under the retirement and social security law, the administrative code of the city of New York, or the education law or any other applicable provision of law. A written request or consent from the data subject pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall not be required for the disclosure of records pursuant to this paragraph; or

[~~(p)~~] (o) to officers or employees of the United States department of education for such department to process credit for qualifying employment and loan forgiveness under the public service loan forgiveness program. A written request or consent from the data subject pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall not be required for the disclosure of records pursuant to this paragraph; or

(p) necessary to prevent an immediate and substantial risk of death, significant bodily harm, significant damage to property, or is otherwise necessary to respond to an immediate emergency; or

(q) disclosed by a 911 service dispatcher in the course of responding to an emergency reported via a 911 system or E911 system to emergency medical services personnel, law enforcement officers, or others responsible for providing assistance at the scene of an emergency; or

(r) to licensing officers of New York state, as defined in subdivision ten of section 265.00 of the penal law, for such officers to issue firearm licenses pursuant to section 400.00 of the penal law.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision one of this section, no agency may disclose any record or personal information to a law enforcement agency or law enforcement officer unless such disclosure is pursuant to paragraphs (l), (p), (q), or (r) of subdivision one of this section.

(3) Nothing in this section shall require disclosure of[+
~~(a) personal information which is otherwise prohibited by law from being disclosed;~~
~~(b) patient records concerning mental disability or medical records where such disclosure is not otherwise required by law;~~
~~(c) personal information pertaining to the incarceration of an incarcerated individual at a state correctional facility which is evaluative in nature or which, if disclosed, could endanger the life or safety of any person, unless such disclosure is otherwise permitted by law;~~
~~(d) attorney's work product or material prepared for litigation before judicial, quasi-judicial or administrative tribunals, as described in subdivisions (c) and (d) of section three thousand one hundred one of the civil practice law and rules, except pursuant to statute, subpoena issued in the course of a criminal action or proceeding, court ordered or grand jury subpoena, search warrant or other court ordered disclosure]~~ any record or personal information or expand an agency's or governmental unit's ability to disclose any record or personal information.

§ 4. Section 97 of the public officers law, as added by chapter 652 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

§ 97. ~~[Civil remedies]~~ Remedies. (1) Any data subject aggrieved by any action taken under this article may seek judicial review and relief pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

(2) In any action brought under subdivision one of this section, the plaintiff may seek:

(a) one thousand dollars per violation or actual damages, whichever is greater; and

(b) punitive damages; and

(c) any other relief the court deems proper.

(3) In assessing the amount of punitive damages awarded to a plaintiff in an action brought under subdivision one of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) the defendant's pattern of violations of this article; and

(b) the impact of the violation on the data subject's exercise of constitutional and statutory rights, including, but not limited to, religion, political views, and medical care.

(4) In any proceeding brought under subdivision one of this section, the party defending the action shall bear the burden of proof, and the court [may] shall, if the data subject [substantially] prevails against any agency [and if the agency lacked a reasonable basis pursuant to this article for the challenged action], award to the data subject reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements reasonably incurred.

(5) Any information disclosed to a law enforcement agency in violation of this article shall be inadmissible against the data subject in a criminal or civil court, or administrative proceeding.

~~[(3)]~~ (6) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or abridge the right of any person to obtain judicial review or pecuniary or other relief, in any other form or upon any other basis, otherwise available to a person aggrieved by any agency action under this article.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
