AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to establishing Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha as school holidays

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 8 of section 3604 of the education law, as 2 amended by chapter 359 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

8. No school shall be in session on a Saturday, the first day of the 5 second lunar month after the winter solstice in the preceding calendar year known as Asian Lunar New Year, the holidays of Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha, as affixed by Muslim religious law and tradition, or a legal holiday, except general election day, Washington's birthday Lincoln's birthday, and except that driver education classes may be conducted on a Saturday. A deficiency not exceeding four days during any 10 school year caused by teachers' attendance upon conferences held by 12 superintendents of schools of city school districts or other school 13 districts employing superintendents of schools shall be excused by the 14 commissioner, notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation 15 to the contrary, a school district may elect to schedule such conference 16 days in the last two weeks of August, subject to collective bargaining requirements pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, and 17 18 such days shall be counted towards the required one hundred eighty days of session, provided however, that such scheduling shall not alter the obligation of the school district to provide transportation to students in non-public elementary and secondary schools or charter schools. At least two such conference days during such school year shall be dedi-5 cated to staff attendance upon conferences providing staff development relating to implementation of the new high learning standards and 7 assessments, as adopted by the board of regents. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, school 9 districts may elect to use one or more of such allowable conference days in units of not less than one hour each to provide staff development 10 activities relating to implementation of the new high learning standards 11 12 and assessments. A district making such election may provide such staff 13 development on any day during which sessions are allowed and apply such 14 units to satisfy a deficiency in the length of one or more daily 15 sessions of instruction for pupils as specified in regulations of the 16 commissioner. The commissioner shall assure that such conference days 17 include appropriate school violence prevention and intervention train-18 ing, and may require that up to one such conference day be dedicated for 19 such purpose.
