AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the requirements for notaries public and commissioners of deeds relating to certain instruments affecting real property; and to amend the penal law, in relation to forgery and the offering of false documents concerning residential real property

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 135-d
2 to read as follows:

3 § 135-d. Requirements of notaries public and commissioners of deeds
4 related to certain instruments affecting real property. 1. This section
5 shall apply to every notarial act in the state involving a document of 6 conveyance that transfers or purports to transfer title with respect to 7 residential real property located in the state. It shall also apply to 8 commissioners of deeds appointed pursuant to section one hundred forty 9 of this article.

10 2. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the follow-
11 ing meanings:

12 a. "document of conveyance" shall mean a deed, indenture, or other
13 written instrument that transfers or purports to transfer title effect-
14 ing a change in ownership to residential real property, or otherwise
15 presented to evidence the conveyance of real property ownership from one
16 party to another excluding:

6. The notarial record shall be retained for ten years in accordance with the procedures described in subdivision five of this section. No copies of the original notarial record may be made or retained by the notary. The notary's employer or principal pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision five of this section, or a notary attorney acting within the scope of his or her employment may retain copies of the notarial records as business records.

7. Any person or entity violating the provisions of this section shall, in addition to all other penalties provided by law, be required to file an official bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars for a first offense and fifty thousand dollars for a subsequent offense. The secretary of state shall assess such penalty following an adjudicatory proceeding conducted in accordance with the state administrative procedure act.

8. The failure of a notary or a commissioner of deeds to comply with the procedure set forth in this section shall not affect the validity of the residential real property transaction in connection to which the document of conveyance is executed, in the absence of fraud and forgery.

§ 2. Section 136 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:

4. For performing a notarial act related to a document of conveyance for which a notarial record is required pursuant to section one hundred thirty-five-d of this article, the notary or commissioner of deeds may charge a fee of twenty-five dollars in addition to any fees required to file the notarial record.

§ 3. Section 170.10 of the penal law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 949 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

§ 170.10 Forgery in the second degree.

A person is guilty of forgery in the second degree when he or she forges an owner's signature on a document purporting to be a document of conveyance under false pretenses or, with intent to defraud, deceive or injure another, he or she falsely makes, completes or alters a written instrument which is or purports to be, or which is calculated to become or to represent if completed:

1. A [~~deed~~,] document of conveyance, will, codicil, contract, assignment, commercial instrument, credit card, as that term is defined in subdivision seven of section 155.00 of this chapter, or other instrument which does or may evidence, create, transfer, terminate or otherwise affect a legal right, interest, obligation or status; or
