1 § 3. Paragraphs (a) and (a-1) of subdivision 1 of section 240 of the 2 domestic relations law, paragraph (a) as amended by chapter 567 of the 3 laws of 2015 and paragraph (a-1) as amended by chapter 295 of the laws 4 of 2009, are amended to read as follows:

5 In any action or proceeding brought (1) to annul a marriage or to (a) б declare the nullity of a void marriage, or (2) for a separation, or (3) 7 for a divorce, or (4) to obtain, by a writ of habeas corpus or by peti-8 tion and order to show cause, the custody of or right to visitation with 9 any child of a marriage, the court shall require verification of the 10 status of any child of the marriage with respect to such child's custody 11 support, including any prior orders, and shall enter orders for and custody and support as, in the court's discretion, justice requires, 12 having regard to the circumstances of the case and of the respective 13 parties and to the best interests of the child and subject to the 14 15 provisions of subdivision one-c of this section. When the parties first appear in court, the court shall advise the parties before proceeding of 16 17 the right to be represented by counsel of their own choosing, of the right to have an adjournment of no longer than fourteen court days to 18 confer with counsel, and the right to obtain counsel fees and expenses, 19 20 pursuant to section two hundred thirty-seven of this article. The court 21 shall assign counsel to the parties and children, pursuant to article 22 two of the family court act. Where either party to an action concerning custody of or a right to visitation with a child alleges in a sworn 23 petition or complaint or sworn answer, cross-petition, counterclaim or 24 25 other sworn responsive pleading that the other party has committed an 26 act of domestic violence against the party making the allegation or a 27 family or household member of either party, as such family or household 28 member is defined in article eight of the family court act, and such allegations are proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the court 29 30 must consider the effect of such domestic violence upon the best inter-31 ests of the child, together with such other facts and circumstances as 32 the court deems relevant in making a direction pursuant to this section 33 and state on the record how such findings, facts and circumstances 34 factored into the direction. If a parent makes a good faith allegation 35 based on a reasonable belief supported by facts that the child is the 36 victim of child abuse, child neglect, or the effects of domestic 37 violence, and if that parent acts lawfully and in good faith in response 38 to that reasonable belief to protect the child or seek treatment for the 39 child, then that parent shall not be deprived of custody, visitation or contact with the child, or restricted in custody, visitation or contact, 40 based solely on that belief or the reasonable actions taken based on 41 42 that belief. If an allegation that a child is abused is supported by a 43 preponderance of the evidence, then the court shall consider such 44 evidence of abuse in determining the visitation arrangement that is in 45 the best interest of the child, and the court shall not place a child in 46 the custody of a parent who presents a substantial risk of harm to that 47 child, and shall state on the record how such findings were factored 48 into the determination. Where a proceeding filed pursuant to article ten or ten-A of the family court act is pending at the same time as a 49 proceeding brought in the supreme court involving the custody of, or 50 51 right to visitation with, any child of a marriage, the court presiding 52 over the proceeding under article ten or ten-A of the family court act 53 may jointly hear the dispositional hearing on the petition under article 54 ten or the permanency hearing under article ten-A of the family court act and, upon referral from the supreme court, the hearing to resolve 55 the matter of custody or visitation in the proceeding pending in the 56

1 supreme court; provided however, the court must determine custody or 2 visitation in accordance with the terms of this section.

3 An order directing the payment of child support shall contain the 4 social security numbers of the named parties. In all cases there shall 5 be no prima facie right to the custody of the child in either parent. б Such direction shall make provision for child support out of the proper-7 ty of either or both parents. The court shall make its award for child 8 support pursuant to subdivision one-b of this section. Such direction 9 may provide for reasonable visitation rights to the maternal and/or 10 paternal grandparents of any child of the parties. Such direction as it 11 applies to rights of visitation with a child remanded or placed in the 12 care of a person, official, agency or institution pursuant to article ten of the family court act, or pursuant to an instrument approved under 13 14 section three hundred fifty-eight-a of the social services law, shall be 15 enforceable pursuant to part eight of article ten of the family court and sections three hundred fifty-eight-a and three hundred eighty-16 act 17 four-a of the social services law and other applicable provisions of law against any person having care and custody, or temporary care and custo-18 dy, of the child. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any writ-19 ten application or motion to the court for the establishment, modifica-20 21 tion or enforcement of a child support obligation for persons not in 22 receipt of public assistance and care must contain either a request for 23 child support enforcement services which would authorize the collection 24 the support obligation by the immediate issuance of an income of 25 execution for support enforcement as provided for by this chapter, 26 completed in the manner specified in section one hundred eleven-g of the 27 social services law; or a statement that the applicant has applied for 28 or is in receipt of such services; or a statement that the applicant knows of the availability of such services, has declined them at this 29 30 time and where support enforcement services pursuant to section one 31 hundred eleven-g of the social services law have been declined that the 32 applicant understands that an income deduction order may be issued 33 pursuant to subdivision (c) of section fifty-two hundred forty-two of the civil practice law and rules without other child support enforcement 34 35 services and that payment of an administrative fee may be required. The 36 court shall provide a copy of any such request for child support 37 enforcement services to the support collection unit of the appropriate 38 social services district any time it directs payments to be made to such 39 support collection unit. Additionally, the copy of any such request 40 shall be accompanied by the name, address and social security number of the parties; the date and place of the parties' marriage; the name and 41 date of birth of the child or children; and the name and address of the 42 43 employers and income payors of the party from whom child support is 44 sought or from the party ordered to pay child support to the other 45 Such direction may require the payment of a sum or sums of money party. 46 either directly to the custodial parent or to third persons for goods or 47 services furnished for such child, or for both payments to the custodial 48 parent and to such third persons; provided, however, that unless the party seeking or receiving child support has applied for or is receiving 49 such services, the court shall not direct such payments to be made to 50 the support collection unit, as established in section one hundred 51 52 eleven-h of the social services law. Every order directing the payment 53 of support shall require that if either parent currently, or at any time 54 in the future, has health insurance benefits available that may be extended or obtained to cover the child, such parent is required to 55 56 exercise the option of additional coverage in favor of such child and execute and deliver to such person any forms, notices, documents or 1 2 instruments necessary to assure timely payment of any health insurance 3 claims for such child. (a-1)(1) [Permanent and initial temporary orders of custody or visita-4 5 tion. Prior to the issuance of any permanent or initial temporary order 6 of custody or visitation, the court shall conduct a review of the deci-7 sions and reports listed in subparagraph three of this paragraph. (2) Successive temporary orders of custody or visitation. Prior to the 8 9 issuance of any successive temporary order of custody or visitation, the 10 court shall conduct a review of the decisions and reports listed in subparagraph three of this paragraph, unless such a review has been 11 12 conducted within ninety days prior to the issuance of such order. (3) Decisions and reports for review. The court shall conduct a 13 review] Prompt evidentiary hearing. Upon the application of a party to 14 15 an action concerning custody of or visitation with a child, or of an attorney for the child, credibly alleging that the other party has 16 17 committed, has threatened to commit, or is likely to commit an act of child abuse or neglect against such child, or has committed, has threat-18 ened to commit, or is likely to commit domestic violence against the 19 20 party making the allegation or a family or household member of either 21 party, and that allegation, if true, would pose a serious risk to the 22 safety of the child, the court shall hold a prompt evidentiary hearing to determine whether temporary limitations or conditions on the custody 23 or visitation rights of the party who is alleged to have committed an 24 25 act of child abuse against the child, or committed an act of domestic violence against the party making the allegation or a family or house-26 27 hold member of either party is necessary to avoid serious risk to the 28 child's safety. Except for good cause shown, the hearing for such deter-29 mination shall commence within twenty court days of the application for such hearing. Parties shall be notified of their right to the assistance 30 31 of counsel at the initiation of such hearing. During such hearing, only 32 material and relevant evidence shall be admitted. If a party waives his 33 or her right to a hearing under this section, the court shall advise 34 such party at that time that, notwithstanding such waiver, an applica-35 tion under this section may be made at any time during the pendency of 36 the proceedings. During the hearing, the court shall conduct an assess-37 ment of serious risk to the child's safety, which shall include, but not be limited to, consideration of the following: 38 39 (i) related decisions in court proceedings initiated pursuant to arti-40 cle ten of the family court act, and all warrants issued under the fami-41 ly court act; [and] 42 (ii) a party's history of domestic violence, child abuse or neglect, 43 child sexual abuse or incidents involving harm, or risk of harm, to a 44 child; 45 (iii) police reports, including domestic violence incident reports of 46 incidents involving child abuse or domestic violence by a party; 47 (iv) evidence and findings of child abuse, domestic violence, serious risk of safety or risk of lethality by a party, including but not limit-48 49 ed to: 50 (a) an increase in frequency or severity of domestic violence; 51 (b) use or threats to use a weapon or dangerous instrument, or unlaw-52 ful possession of firearms; (c) threats to harm or kill the child, the other party, the other 53 54 party's children, self or others, or companion animals; 55 (d) sexual abuse or other sexual offenses against the child or the 56 other party;

(e) unlawful dissemination or publication of an intimate image, pursu-1 ant to section 245.15 of the penal law; 2 (f) incidents involving obstruction of breathing or strangulation; 3 4 (g) a party's pattern of alcohol or substance abuse that places the 5 child at serious risk or risk of lethality; б (h) incidents of violence during pregnancy; 7 (i) incidents of stalking or cyber stalking; and 8 (j) coercive control, as defined in paragraph (c) of subdivision one 9 of section two hundred forty-e of this article; and 10 (v) reports of the statewide computerized registry of orders of 11 protection established and maintained pursuant to section two hundred 12 twenty-one-a of the executive law, and reports of the sex offender registry established and maintained pursuant to section one hundred 13 14 sixty-eight-b of the correction law. 15 [(4)] (2) Conditions of custody or visitation. If the court determines that limitations or restrictions of a party's custody, visitation 16 or contact with the child are necessary pursuant to a review of any 17 findings or credible allegations of child abuse, domestic violence, 18 serious risk of safety and risk of lethality to the child, and the deci-19 sions and reports listed in subparagraph one of this paragraph, the 20 21 court shall set forth conditions of custody or visitation in a temporary 22 order of custody or visitation that prioritizes the avoidance of serious 23 risk to the child's safety. When the court decides to issue or to not issue such temporary order, the parties shall be notified of their right 24 25 to appeal, pursuant to article eleven of the family court act. 26 (i) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the court shall not 27 award, in a temporary order for custody or visitation, sole or joint 28 custody or unsupervised visitation to a party who poses a serious risk 29 to the child's safety. 30 (ii) The court shall state on the record, and in writing, any findings 31 or credible allegations of child abuse, domestic violence, serious risk of safety or risk of lethality, and any decisions and reports considered 32 33 in rendering its decision and the reasons for the limitations or restrictions placed on a party's custody, visitation or contact with 34 35 such child. 36 (iii) Nothing contained in this subparagraph shall be deemed in any 37 way to limit, restrict, expand or impair the rights of any party to file 38 for a modification of a temporary order as is otherwise provided by law. 39 (3) Notifying counsel and issuing orders. Upon consideration of decisions pursuant to article ten of the family court act, and registry 40 reports and notifying counsel involved in the proceeding, or in the 41 42 event of a self-represented party, notifying such party of the results 43 thereof, including any court appointed attorney for children, the court 44 may issue a temporary, successive temporary or final order of custody or 45 visitation. 46 [(5)] (4) Temporary emergency order. Notwithstanding any other 47 provision of the law, upon emergency situations, including computer malfunctions, to serve the best interest of the child, the court may 48 issue a temporary emergency order for custody or visitation in the event 49 that it is not possible to timely review decisions and reports on regis-50 51 tries as required pursuant to subparagraph [three] one of this para-52 graph. 53  $\left[\frac{(6)}{(5)}\right]$  After issuing a temporary emergency order. After issuing a 54 temporary emergency order of custody or visitation, the court shall 55 conduct reviews of the decisions and reports on registries as required 56 pursuant to subparagraph [three] one of this paragraph within twenty-four hours of the issuance of such temporary emergency order. Should 1 such twenty-four hour period fall on a day when court is not in session, 2 then the required reviews shall take place the next day the court is in 3 4 session. Upon reviewing decisions and reports the court shall notify 5 associated counsel, self-represented parties and attorneys for children 6 pursuant to subparagraph [four] three of this paragraph and may issue 7 temporary or permanent custody or visitation orders.

[(7)] (6) Feasibility study. The commissioner of the office of chil-8 9 dren and family services, in conjunction with the office of court admin-10 istration, is hereby authorized and directed to examine, study, evaluate 11 and make recommendations concerning the feasibility of the utilization 12 of computers in courts which are connected to the statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment established and maintained 13 pursuant to section four hundred twenty-two of the social services law, 14 15 as a means of providing courts with information regarding parties requesting orders of custody or visitation. Such commissioner shall make 16 17 a preliminary report to the governor and the legislature of findings, conclusions and recommendations not later than January first, two thou-18 sand nine, and a final report of findings, conclusions and recommenda-19 tions not later than June first, two thousand nine, and shall submit 20 21 with the reports such legislative proposals as are deemed necessary to 22 implement the commissioner's recommendations.
