19 (a) is not the result of a ~~[plant]~~ facility closing; and 20 (b) results in an employment loss for those working at or reporting to 22 ~~(i) at least thirty three percent of the employees (excluding part-~~ 23 ~~time employees); and~~

48 § 2. Subdivisions 5 and 7 of section 860-b of the labor law, as added 49 by chapter 475 of the laws of 2008, are amended to read as follows:

50 5. In the case of a sale of part or all of an employer's business, the 51 seller shall be responsible for providing notice for any ~~[plant]~~ facili-

54 the sale of part or all of an employer's business, the purchaser shall 55 be responsible for providing notice for any ~~[plant]~~ facility closing or

1 provision of this article, any person who is an employee of the seller 2 as of the effective date of the sale shall be considered an employee of 3 the purchaser immediately after the effective date of the sale.

4 7. Nothing set forth herein shall be read to prevent an employer who 5 is not required to comply with the notice requirements of this section, 6 to the extent possible, to provide notice to its employees about a 7 proposal to close a ~~[plant]~~ facility or permanently reduce its work-8 force.

9 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 860-c of the labor law, as added by 10 chapter 475 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

11 1. In the case of a ~~[plant]~~ facility closing or mass layoff, an 12 employer is not required to comply with the notice requirement in subdivi-13 sion one of section eight hundred sixty-b of this article if:

14 ~~(a) [(i) at the time the notice would have been required, the employer~~ 15 ~~was actively seeking capital or business; and~~

16 ~~(ii) the capital or business sought, if obtained, would have enabled~~ 17 ~~the employer to avoid or postpone the relocation or termination; and~~

18 ~~(iii) the employer reasonably and in good faith believed that giving~~ 19 ~~the notice required by subdivision one of section eight hundred sixty-b~~ 20 ~~of this article would have precluded the employer from obtaining the~~ 21 ~~needed capital or business;~~

22 ~~(b) the need for a notice was not reasonably foreseeable at the time~~ 23 ~~the notice would have been required;~~

24 ~~(c)]~~ the ~~[plant]~~ facility closing is of a temporary facility or the 25 ~~[plant]~~ facility closing or mass layoff is the result of the completion 26 of a particular project or undertaking, and the affected employees were 27 hired with the understanding that their employment was limited to the 28 duration of the facility or project or undertaking;

29 ~~[(d) the plant closing or mass layoff is due to any form of natural~~ 30 ~~disaster, such as a flood, earthquake, or drought; or~~

31 ~~(e)]~~ (b) the facility closing or mass layoff constitutes a strike or 32 constitutes a lockout not intended to evade the requirements of this 33 article. Nothing in this article shall require an employer to serve 34 written notice when permanently replacing a person who is deemed to be 35 an economic striker under the National Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C.
36 151 et seq.). Nothing in this article shall be deemed to validate or 37 invalidate any judicial or administrative ruling relating to the hiring 38 of permanent replacements for economic strikers under the National Labor 39 Relations Act.

40 § 4. Section 860-d of the labor law, as added by chapter 475 of the 41 laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

42 § 860-d. Extension of mass layoff period. A mass layoff of more than 43 ~~[six]~~ three months which, at its outset, was announced to be a mass 44 layoff of ~~[six]~~ three months or less with an announced expected date of 45 recall shall be treated as an employment loss under this article unless:

46 1. the extension beyond ~~[six]~~ three months is caused by business 47 circumstances (including unforeseeable changes in price or cost) not 48 reasonably foreseeable at the time of the initial mass layoff; and

49 2. notice is given at the time it becomes reasonably foreseeable that 50 the extension beyond ~~[six]~~ three months will be required.

51 § 5. Section 860-e of the labor law, as added by chapter 475 of the 52 laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

53 § 860-e. Determinations with respect to employment loss. In determin-54 ing whether a ~~[plant]~~ facility closing or mass layoff has occurred or 55 will occur, employment losses for two or more groups of employees at a 56 single site of employment, each of which is less than the minimum number

1 of employees specified in [~~subdivisions four or six~~] subdivision nine or 2 ten of section eight hundred sixty-a of this article but which in the 3 aggregate meet or exceed that minimum number set forth in such subdivi-4 sions, and which occur within any ninety-day period shall be considered 5 to be a [~~plant~~] facility closing or mass layoff unless the employer 6 demonstrates that the employment losses are the result of separate and 7 distinct actions and causes and are not an attempt by the employer to 8 evade the requirements of this article.

9 § 6. The section heading of section 860-g of the labor law, as added 10 by chapter 475 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

11 Violation; liability; severance.

12 § 7. Subdivisions 2, 4, 6 and 8 of section 860-g of the labor law, as 13 added by chapter 475 of the laws of 2008, are amended and two new subdivi-14 sions 9 and 10 are added to read as follows:

15 2. Back pay and other liability under this section is calculated for 16 the period of the employer's violation, [~~up to a maximum of sixty days,~~] 17 or one-half the number of days that the employee was employed by the 18 employer, whichever period is smaller.

19 4. The amount of an employer's liability under subdivision one of this 20 section, shall be reduced by the following:

21 (a) Any wages, except vacation moneys accrued before the period of the 22 employer's violation, paid by the employer to the employee during the 23 period of the employer's violation.

24 (b) Any voluntary and unconditional payments made by the employer to 25 the employee that were not required to satisfy any legal obligation.

26 (c) Any [~~payments by the employer to a third party or trustee, such as~~ 27 ~~premiums for health benefits or payments to a defined contribution~~ 28 ~~pension plan, on behalf of and attributable to the employee for the~~ 29 ~~period of the violation.~~

30 [~~(d) Any~~] liability paid by the employer under any applicable federal 31 law governing notification of mass layoffs, [~~plant~~] facility closings, 32 or relocations.

33 [~~(e)~~] (d) In an administrative proceeding by the commissioner, any 34 liability paid by the employer prior to the commissioner's determination 35 as the result of a private action brought under this article.

36 [~~(f)~~] (e) In a private action brought under this article, any liabil-37 ity paid by the employer in an administrative proceeding by the commis-38 sioner prior to the adjudication of such private action.

39 6. [~~If an employer proves to the satisfaction of the commissioner that~~ 40 ~~the act or omission that violated this article was in good faith and~~ 41 ~~that the employer had reasonable grounds for believing that the act or~~ 42 ~~omission was not a violation of this article, the commissioner may, in~~ 43 ~~his or her discretion, reduce the amount of liability provided for in~~ 44 ~~this section. In determining the amount of such reduction, the commis-~~ 45 ~~sioner shall consider (a) the size of the employer; (b) the hardships~~ 46 ~~imposed on employees by the violation; (c) any efforts by the employer~~ 47 ~~to mitigate the violation; and (d) the grounds for the employer's~~ 48 ~~belief.~~]

49 (a) Within thirty days after a natural disaster, such as a flood, 50 earthquake, or drought, an employer may make application to the commis-51 sioner for a reduction in liability imposed under this article. If such 52 employer proves, to the satisfaction of the commissioner, that the mass 53 layoff, relocation or employment loss out of which liability arose was a 54 direct result of such natural disaster, the commissioner may, in his or 55 her discretion, reduce any liability with respect to such mass layoff, 56 relocation or employment loss provided for in this article, including

1 the severance obligations provided by subdivision ten of this section.
2 In determining the amount of any approved reduction, the commissioner 3 shall consider: (i) the size of the employer; (ii) the hardships imposed 4 on employees by any and all violations; (iii) any efforts by the employ-5 er to mitigate any violation or violations and any reduction in liabil-6 ity to employees; and (iv) the degree of harm caused to the employer and 7 the employees by the natural disaster.

8 (b) Any aggrieved employee of an employer making application pursuant 9 to paragraph (a) of this subdivision seeking to challenge the determi-10 nation of the commissioner may bring a civil action on their own behalf, 11 or on behalf of other persons similarly situated, or both, in any court 12 of competent jurisdiction, within the time period provided by section 13 two hundred thirteen of the civil practice law and rules. The court may 14 award reasonable attorney's fees as part of costs to any plaintiff who 15 prevails in a civil action brought under this article.

16 8. Neither the commissioner nor any court shall have the authority to 17 enjoin a [plant] facility closing, relocation, or mass layoff under this 18 article; provided, however, whenever an employer is liable pursuant to 19 subdivision one of this section, application may be made by the attorney 20 general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or 21 justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunc-22 tion, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to 23 enjoin and restrain the actions of such employer or take such other 24 actions the attorney general may deem appropriate to enforce the 25 provisions of subdivision one of this section. In connection with any 26 such proposed application, the attorney general is authorized to take 27 proof and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue 28 subpoenas in accordance with the civil practice law and rules.

29 9. No waivers of liability under this article shall be enforceable 30 unless supervised by a court, the commissioner or certified class coun-31 sel.

32 10. Whenever there is a plant closing, relocation, or mass layoff 33 under this article, the employer shall pay severance to each employee 34 entitled to notice who lost his or her employment equal to one week of 35 pay for each full year of employment. An employer who fails to give 36 notice as required by paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section eight 37 hundred sixty-b of this article before ordering a mass layoff, relo-38 cation, or employment loss shall pay each such employee an additional 39 four weeks of severance pay. The rate of severance pay provided by the 40 employer pursuant to this section shall be the average regular rate of 41 compensation received by the employee during the last three years of 42 employment with the employer, or the employee's final regular rate of 43 compensation, whichever is higher. Severance under this subdivision 44 shall be regarded as compensation due to an employee for losses associ-45 ated with the termination of the employment relationship, and earned in 46 full upon the termination of the employment relationship, notwithstand-47 ing the calculation of the amount of the payment with reference to the 48 employee's length of service. The employer shall pay the severance pay 49 required pursuant to this subdivision or the severance pay required by a 50 collective bargaining agreement or for any other reason, whichever is 51 greater. The four weeks of severance pay provided for an employee by 52 this subdivision in the event of a failure to give notice as required by 53 paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section eight hundred sixty-b of 54 this article shall be reduced by any back pay paid to the employee 55 pursuant to this section or subsection 5 of section 2104 of the federal 56 Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 2104 1 et seq.), because of a violation of subsection 3 of section 2102 of such 2 act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 2102 et seq.). No waiver of the right to severance 3 provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be effective without 4 approval of the waiver by the commissioner or a court of competent 5 jurisdiction.

6 § 8. This act shall take effect immediately.
