2 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 195.05 Obstructing governmental administration in the second degree.

4 1. A person is guilty of obstructing governmental administration in 5 the second degree when he intentionally obstructs, impairs or perverts 6 the administration of law or other governmental function or prevents or 7 attempts to prevent a public servant from performing an official func-8 tion, by means of intimidation, physical force or interference, or by 9 means of any independently unlawful act, or by means of interfering,
10 whether or not physical force is involved, with radio, telephone, tele-11 vision or other telecommunications systems owned or operated by the 12 state, or a county, city, town, village, fire district or emergency 13 medical service or by means of releasing a dangerous animal under 14 circumstances evincing the actor's intent that the animal obstruct 15 governmental administration.

16 2. A person is permitted to exercise their right to photograph or 17 record a law enforcement officer performing their duties while the offi-18 cer is in a public place or public view, or the person is in a private 19 place the person has the right to be.

20 (a) If such photography or recording occurs, an officer shall not:

21 (i) intentionally hinder, prevent, or obstruct the person from taking 22 a photograph or making a recording;

23 (ii) detain, arrest, threaten, intimidate, or otherwise harass such 24 person;

1 (iii) search or seize the photograph, recording, or device used to 2 take the photograph or make the recording without such person's permis-3 sion or a warrant; or

4 (iv) damage or destroy the photograph, recording, or device used to 5 take the photograph or make the recording.

6 (b) This subdivision shall not apply to a person if an officer is in 7 the act of placing such person under arrest or the person is under 8 arrest.

9 (c) If an officer violates this subdivision, such person shall have a 10 civil cause of action against the officer and the officer's law enforce-11 ment agency.

12 Obstructing governmental administration in the second degree is a 13 class A misdemeanor.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
