Introduced by M. of A. JACKSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the public housing law, in relation to requiring entities responsible for the provision of vital services to coordinate and work expeditiously to restore service whenever such service is interrupted

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 402-e of the public housing law, as amended by chapter 47 of the laws of 2020, is amended and a new subdivision 5 is added to read as follows:

1. In order to ensure compliance and enforcement of the New York city housing authority's duty to provide heat, water, electricity, gas, where provided and elevator service, the New York city housing authority shall publish information regarding reported disruptions in such services, the length of such disruptions and the steps taken to restore services and shall remedy interruptions of gas service in accordance with subdivision five of this section. Starting on May first, two thousand twenty, the New York city housing authority shall publish such information on its website. For six months after the original publication date, the New York city housing authority shall retain such information on its website.

5. a. The New York city housing authority shall remedy an interruption of gas service as expeditiously as practicable by applying for any permits necessary to make repairs, as applicable, and coordinating with agencies and gas corporations on a plan to restore such service.

b. The New York city housing authority shall notify residents affected by any such interruption of the plan to restore such service developed pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision by:
